School's Mission and Vision

Mission

Leadership For Educational Equity

Prepare and inspire education and mental health leaders to have a profound impact in fostering student opportunity, achievement and success in urban and diverse communities.

Vision

The vision of the School of Education & Human Development (SEHD) is to be, “A leading school of education providing national expertise on educational issues and socially-just solutions for urban and diverse communities. Through innovative research and partnerships, we strive to be passionate agents of change, inspiring upcoming generations to learn from the past and shape the future”.

The School of Education & Human Development’s research, education and outreach programs are focused on supporting urban communities, alive with diverse cultural and linguistic traditions and influenced by the dynamic interplay of class, race, power and privilege. Through community alliances, SEHD faculty and students collaborate to identify, study, and take action within the social and political complexities of urban practice.

The School of Education & Human Development’s programs graduate highly skilled, culturally responsive practitioners and researchers who lead innovation and renewal in urban schools, districts, mental health agencies, and adult learning settings.

Non-Discrimination Policy

The University of Colorado Denver does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, creed, religion, sexual orientation, or veteran status in admission and access to, and treatment and employment in, its educational programs and activities. The University takes action to increase ethnic, cultural, and gender diversity, to employ qualified disabled individuals, and to provide equal opportunity to all students and employees.

Qualification for the position and institutional need shall be the sole bases for hiring employees, and the criteria for retaining employees shall be related to performance evaluation, assessment of institutional need, fiscal constraints, and/or, in the case of exempt professionals, the rational exercise of administrative prerogative.

All students shall have the same fundamental rights to equal respect, due process, and judgment of them based solely on factors demonstrably related to performance and expectations as students. All students share equally the obligations to perform their duties and exercise judgments of others in accordance with the basic standards of fairness, equity, and inquiry that should always guide education.

If you wish to report discrimination or need additional information, contact Employment Rights Compliance and Investigation Manager Karey Duarte at 303.724.9694; send correspondence to P.O. Box 173364, Campus Box A005, Denver, CO 80217-3364; or email her at Karey.Duarte@ucdenver.edu.

Office of Diversity and Inclusion

The majority of faculty members in the School of Education & Human Development (SEHD) have K-12 teaching or counseling experience, often in settings with members from diverse racial, language, gender, and socioeconomic backgrounds. Those experiences have drawn them to this urban university and have shaped our organizational and moral commitment to respecting diversity and pursuing equity. SEHD faculty believes that lives are forever changed with access to excellent education and quality mental health services. As a public university, we are committed to increasing educational opportunities among underserved populations.

The Denver metro area population, indeed the population in the state and nation, is rapidly becoming more racially, culturally and ethnically diverse. It is our responsibility and commitment to prepare educators and counselors who represent diverse groups. It is also our responsibility to prepare all educators and counselors to provide culturally responsive educational and mental health services for the increasing diversity of our society.

Finally, diversity of action, research and viewpoints (ways of knowing and expressing knowledge) is fundamental in universities. It is that diversity that keeps our democracy alive. Diversity gives rise to new knowledge and new ways of thinking, a key function of a university. Thus, we believe that diversity is fundamental to the university and to our School.

While the SEHD has had a focus on equity and diversity for a number of years, a majority of our former efforts focused on integration of related content into our programs, faculty recruitment and development, and to a lesser extent student recruitment but without a clear plan for retention. As a part of the SEHD school-wide plan to encourage attention to diversity and equity, the Office of Diversity and Inclusion was established in September 2012.

In partnership with the SEHD Diversity Committee, the overall focus of the School of Education & Human Development (SEHD) Office of Diversity and Inclusion has been creating and building partnerships within the SEHD community to promote a climate of equity and enhance diversity and inclusiveness initiatives internally. The Office of Diversity and Inclusion also has collaborated with key school districts specifically as it relates to outreach, retention, and community engagement. Also, in collaboration with school, university and community partners, the Office of Diversity and Inclusion strategically incorporates best practices regarding recruitment and student success.

Finally, your support as a faculty member informs our strategic direction through formal and informal means (e.g. student surveys, student forums, and faculty feedback /input opportunities). By collaboratively addressing student access and success challenges, we are certain we can improve our chances of effectively addressing access and persistence barriers impacting all members of our SEHD community.

In addition, the Office of Diversity and Inclusion also works with the Dean and Associate Deans to identify available and new sources for student funding, such as scholarships and assistantships, which may be integrated into the recruitment and retention process. For more information, please contact Dr. Aswad Allen PhD, Assistant Dean of Diversity and Inclusion at Aswad.Allen@UCDenver.edu.

Office of Recruitment and Outreach

The mission of the Office of Recruitment & Outreach (ORO) is to nurture positive relationships with prospective students, schools, organizations and the local community to attract diverse, highly-qualified applicants that best fit the pedagogy and mission of programs available within the School of Education & Human Development. We use the following activities to accomplish our goal:

Recruitment Programs

ORO offers a variety of small and large events where staff, faculty, students and alumni can engage with prospective students. Events include all-school open houses, program information sessions, prospective student walk-in hours, online webinars, undergraduate/graduate fairs, and conferences. Specific dates are shared at the beginning of each school year at the fall staff/faculty retreat and will be posted on the SEHD Impact thereafter.

Outreach Programs

SEHD hosts and participates in outreach events to stimulate general interest in higher education and encourage high school and community college students to consider education and human development careers. ORO also sponsors many campus visitation programs for SEHD partner schools and pipeline programs (i.e. Pathways2Teaching and Pre-collegiate). Specific dates are shared at the beginning of each school year at the fall staff/faculty retreat and will be posted on the SEHD Impact thereafter.

Customer Service & Communication

Our team provides reactive and proactive communication to individuals from inquiry to application. Student admissions ambassadors provide individualized responses to prospective students in a timely manner. In many instances, ORO partners with faculty and current students to support these efforts (i.e. admitted student call-a-thon). Faculty members should forward any prospective student contacts to Education@UCDenver.edu or 303-315-6300 and ORO team members would be happy to follow up and support each individual.

If you have any questions, suggestions or feedback, feel free to email the Manager of Recruitment and Outreach, Marlinda Hines at Marlinda.Hines@UCDenver.edu.

Continuing and Professional Education

The office of Continuing and Professional Education (CPE) manages the School's cash-funded courses and programs, offering over 400 courses each year in and around Colorado. CPE supports the professional education needs of individual school teachers, administrators, and mental health professionals by offering programs, typically either off-campus or online, to individuals, schools, and districts.

Programs are of varying lengths and credits, and include certificates, master's degrees, courses leading to a Doctor of Education (EdD), an online alternative teacher licensure program, and EDU, a fee-for-service, noncredit-based professional learning division. Depending on the program, CPE credit transfers toward district and Colorado Department of Education (CDE) requirements for re-licensure, salary increase, and/or career advancement, as well as CDE endorsements and university degree programs.

For more detail about CPE's certificates and other course offerings, please visit the CPE Website.

CPE also supports various SEHD initiatives through distribution of tuition revenue generated by its courses and programs. If you have questions about CPE or need assistance planning a course or program, please contact CPE staff directly at 720-639-9229 or visit us at Denver Place, 999 18th Street, Suite 144.

Research and Creative Activities

Research and scholarly writing are an important part of the work of faculty in the School of Education & Human Development (SEHD). Through disciplined inquiry and scholarly discourse, faculty members contribute to the understanding and solution of important problems of educational practice and policy. The School encourages diversity in choices of problems to be addressed and methods of inquiry used. The School also encourages collaborative and cross-disciplinary research as faculty members address significant problems of practice.

The SEHD establishes the following general standards against which faculty records of research and creative activities may be judged:

1. Disciplined, Sustained and Focused Research
2. High Quality Publications and Productivity
3. Impact/Influence on Knowledge and/or Practice in the Field
4. Internal and External Funding to Support Research and Scholarship

For detailed descriptions of these criteria, please refer to RTP Standards and Criteria (to obtain a copy, please contact Associate Dean for Faculty Affairs, Dorothy Garrison-Wade, Dorothy.GarrisonWade@UCDenver.edu).

Faculty Mentoring Program

The SEHD Faculty Mentoring Program was established in 2001. The purpose of the program is to provide support to pre-tenured faculty. To realize this outcome, the mentoring program provides a variety of supports, including monthly mentoring meetings with mentor and/or Associate Dean of Faculty Affairs, individual mentor-mentee meetings as requested, and periodic progress checks. Some of the specific objectives of the program include the following activities and outcomes for both mentors and mentees:

- Developing a research agenda

- Developing a writing schedule
- Producing scholarly products to be submitted to refereed journals
- Producing other research/scholarly products such as grant proposals and conference presentation proposals
- Identifying strategies to manage time effectively
- Developing resiliency about the publishing process
- Observing teaching and offering teaching strategies
- Identifying or developing strategies to balance time among responsibilities in the areas of teaching, research, service, and professional commitments.

Eligible mentees are tenure track faculty in the School of Education & Human Development who desire to engage in a collaborative relationship with a senior member of the SEHD faculty. Eligible mentors are tenured faculty members who agree to meet their mentees on a regular basis and are willing to offer the mentees support in their research, teaching, and other scholarly activities. Mentoring support is also available for clinical and research faculty. For more information contact Dorothy Garrison-Wade, Associate Dean of Faculty Affairs, at 303-315-4957. New faculty members, please see Appendix A for a checklist for Getting Started and Appendix B-Useful Contacts.

Faculty Research Support Center

The School of Education & Human Development Faculty Research Support Center was designed to respond to the research and funding needs of faculty. The Center brings coherence, support and continuity to research efforts by creating a space and a place for research development and services. The Faculty Research Support Center's mission is to assist in establishing a strong research record for each SEHD faculty member in a disciplined, sustained, and focused approach to inquiry that has the potential to impact knowledge in the field and practice in the educational community. The center accomplishes this by (1) providing a space in which research activities are highlighted, supported, and nurtured and (2) being responsive to faculty research interests.

The Faculty Research Support Center staff members consult with faculty to help support research including but not limited to: proof and edit manuscripts, conduct literature reviews, set up surveys in Qualtrics, perform searches for funding, complete limited transcription requests, and carry out data analyses. If you have needs associated with your research that are not listed here, please contact Dorothy Garrison-Wade, Associate Dean of Faculty Affairs, at 303-315-4957.

Grants and Contracts

The Assistant Director for Grants and Contracts, Bolormaa Begzsuren, provides support for SEHD faculty and staff whose work is supported through external funds awarded in grant competitions, contracts, and gifts to the SEHD. It is through the Assistant Director for Grants and Contracts that aspiring SEHD grant writers are supported in locating potential grant opportunities, guided through the proposal development and submission, and assisted with the management and oversight of awarded projects. Please contact Bolormaa Begzsuren at any time to discuss your goals around grant or contract development at Bolormaa.Begzsuren@UCDenver.edu.

The Evaluation Center

The Evaluation Center offers a full range of evaluation services to clients internal and external to the SEHD, including designing and conducting evaluations, integrating qualitative and quantitative analyses, and disseminating findings in a useful and meaningful way. Staff work to develop comprehensive plans which meet the unique needs of clients with a focus on helping individuals and organizations learn about and improve their programs, as well as providing a rigorous and objective analysis of respective program progress and effectiveness. The Evaluation Center is unique among program evaluation groups because it operates as an autonomous not-for-profit entity embedded within the SEHD at the University of Colorado Denver.

Teaching

The School of Education & Human Development expects all faculty members to demonstrate excellence in teaching and exemplify the best pedagogical practices. Teaching is broadly defined to include program leadership, program/course development, direct instruction, advising, supervision, and support within professional development settings. Criteria to be considered in forming an overall evaluation of the quality of teaching include:

1. Course Development and Design
2. Curriculum Development
3. Program Planning and Program Evaluation
4. High Quality Instruction
5. Quality of Student Relationships, Advising, and Mentoring
6. Seeks Funding to Support Instruction
7. Impact on Practice
8. Scholarship of Teaching

For detailed descriptions of these criteria, please refer to RTP Standards and Criteria. Also, see Appendix C Common Terms.

Faculty members have responsibilities that extend beyond the 16-week semester. The calendar on the following page is a summary of faculty responsibilities for instruction based on a generic semester/term calendar.

Time Commitment to Instruction

Faculty members in the School of Education & Human Development are expected to allocate an appropriate amount of time in order to create the best possible learning environment for students. Time commitments extend beyond the scheduled classroom period to include office hours, appointments, class preparation, grading, one-on-one mentoring and tutoring, and clinical and field supervision. Faculty are also expected to follow all School and University policies in the classroom.

Advising

Students are assigned advisors upon admission to the program. The student’s letter of admission identifies the advisor. Students are instructed to contact their Academic Services staff advisor for information related to program plans of study, registration and degree information and to contact their faculty advisor for questions related to course curriculum and content. Please see Appendix D for Graduate Program Procedures.

Staff advisors are available between 8am to 5:00pm Monday - Fridays, faculty advisors by appointment only.

Course Scheduling

Classes should promptly begin and end according to the meeting pattern established in the Schedule of Courses. University holidays are observed as stated in the Academic Calendar. Final examinations (optional) are to be administered according to the AHEC schedule posted in the Schedule of Courses. Faculty who must miss scheduled classes because of professional obligations (meetings, presentations, etc.) should note dates on syllabus and make arrangements in advance to cover the missed instruction. Faculty who must miss class due to illness or unplanned circumstances must notify Academic Services prior to class and, if at all possible, make arrangements to cover the scheduled class(es). In the event that arrangements cannot be made to cover a class, you must notify your students by e-mail and posted signs of class cancellation. Contact Academic Services, and an attempt will be made to post signs in the classroom.

Class Location

The location of your course is available in the Faculty Center in UCD Access. On-campus courses are courses offered through the regular SEHD registration process, and meet in classrooms on the Auraria campus. Off-campus courses are Continuing and Professional Education (CPE) courses that are held off campus in places typically arranged by those who set up the courses. If you wish to hold a class in a different location or take a field trip, you MUST notify Academic Services. For a list of building abbreviations, please visit this webpage.

Syllabus

PREPARATION GUIDANCE

Many program areas have copies of course syllabi that can assist new professors in course preparations. Contact the program representative if you need guidance in selecting course topics, texts, and reading materials. The campus syllabus policy statement is available on the Center for Faculty Development website here. The SEHD syllabus template is available in Appendix E.

REVIEWING THE SYLLABUS WITH STUDENTS

The SEHD requires instructors to provide detailed course information on or prior to the first day of class through a course syllabus. Syllabi with detailed policies, procedures, and expectations provided at the beginning of the semester reduce ad hoc faculty decisions and promote good student-faculty communication.

Faculty are encouraged to use a portion of the first class meeting to ensure students are familiar with the course objectives, content, grading and classroom policies. For online courses, it is recommended that instructors provide online content that ensure students are familiar with the syllabus.

REQUIRED FACULTY AND COURSE INFORMATION

A course syllabus in the School of Education & Human Development should contain the following information:

1. Course Overview and Course Information

- * Campus location (Denver, Anschutz Medical Campus or other location) and Academic School/College
- * Course title (official ISIS title), number, prefix, and section designation. Indicate if the course is part of the undergraduate core. See <http://www.ucdenver.edu/student-services/resources/ue/core/Pages/default.aspx> for a listing of all core courses.
- * Semester/term and year
- * Class meeting day(s) and time(s)
- * Catalog description and any additional information including requisites.

2. Basic Instructor Information

- * Instructor's name (including co-instructors and/or teaching assistants)
- * Instructor's office location (building and room #)
- * Instructor's contact information (phone number(s) and email address(es))
- * Instructor's office hours and statement of availability (for face-to-face, hybrid and online courses)

3. Course Goals/Outcomes

 - * Points (preferred) or assigned percentage for graded assignments
 - * Attendance and participation – The impact of attendance on evaluation and grades must be consistent with CU Denver policy and SEHD policies set by the Student Academic Appeals Committee (See Appendix F). If participation is part of students' grades, we recommend establishing explicit, objective standards for assigning participation grades.
 - * Plus/minus grading – or lack thereof
 - * Individual vs. group efforts on projects – Assessments involving group efforts must set clear expectations as to how individual students will be assigned grades on group projects.
 - * Late assignments – specify penalty, if any, imposed for late assignments
 - * If the course is offered to both undergraduate and graduate students, differing outcomes, assignments requirements, and evaluation metrics for graduate students must be articulated to distinguish them from undergraduate outcomes, assignments, requirements, and metrics.

4. Syllabus Revisions – In general, syllabi should not be changed once the semester begins, though unforeseen circumstances may lead to changes. Students should be notified in a timely manner in writing (via email/Canvas, etc.) of any changes to the syllabus.

5. Course Procedures

- * Materials (required as well as recommended texts, equipment, software, and supplies)
- * Course calendar/schedule (may include appropriate links to CU Denver academic calendar)

Grades

ENTERING GRADES IN UCD ACCESS

Follow this link below for a step-by-step guide on how to enter grades.

POSTING GRADES

The posting of grades by name or student number (even with name obscured) violates federal law under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) and is strictly prohibited. No grade may be posted in a manner that would allow a student to learn another student's grade. Graded papers may not be placed in a box or file cabinet for students to look through to find their own, unless those papers are sealed inside individual envelopes. It is acceptable -and encouraged- for students to supply the faculty member with a stamped, self-addressed envelope to return papers or other assignments. The best way is to post grades in our CANVAS online course system. Students can log in with their ID to see their grades. Call the CU Online Help Desk at 303-315-3700 for assistance/questions.

Grading is done online through the Faculty Center in UCD Access. If there is more than one instructor on record, only the Primary Instructor will be able to approve and submit the final grades however, the Secondary Instructor will be able to enter the grades. Complete your grading online through UCD Access. If you have questions, please contact the help line at 303-735-4357.

GRADE CHANGE FORM

A Change of Record form is required to correct or update a student's grade for a course, or to indicate the completion of coursework that allows an Incomplete to convert to a letter grade. These forms are available in Academic Services (LSC 701).

FREQUENTLY ENCOUNTERED SITUATIONS

1. 'Student asks for an incomplete grade to satisfy financial aid requirements.'

Financial aid requires students to successfully complete a certain number of semester hours by the end of the semester. Grades of 'I', 'W', 'NC', and 'F' do not satisfy financial aid requirements. An Incomplete grade will not satisfy Financial Aid requirements.

2. 'Student asks for Incomplete to complete a course assignment.'

In the absence of special circumstances, extending the semester for a student is a form of extra credit not allowed by School policies.

3. 'Student inquires as to what it will take to earn a grade of 'X' in course.'

Students are responsible for knowing the passing grade, typically B- in their courses. Faculty should not encourage poorly performing students to stay in the course past the 10-week drop deadline as student performance rarely improves at the end of the semester. Regular communication of student performance during the semester is the best way to avoid this situation.

4. Student complains about grade after the semester is completed.

Faculty are encouraged to regularly communicate grade information to students during the semester to minimize student complaints. Faculty should meet with students to evaluate the nature of the complaint. Faculty grading mistakes are easily handled with the Change of Record Form. Otherwise, the student should be referred to the Academic Services Office (LSC 701) for the Academic Appeal Process procedure.

Campus Closures

Faculty cannot insist that students make up a class when the campus is closed due to inclement weather. An additional class session may be scheduled only if ALL students in the class agree to meet without coercion. No students can be penalized in any way for failure to attend an additional class meeting. Information on campus closures can be found at:

CU Denver Honor Code

As members of the CU Denver community, students are expected to uphold University standards, which include abiding by state, civil, and criminal laws and all University policies and standards of conduct. These standards assist in promoting a safe and welcoming community. The full CU Denver Student Code of Conduct can be found on the Student Conduct & Community Standards webpage here.

Student Handbooks

Each program has a student handbook describing policies and procedures. Specific information regarding grading, course requirements, academic performance, etc., is detailed in the handbook.

Please become familiar with the policies and procedures that relate to your program area so that you are sharing correct information with students. Program handbooks are available online.

Drop/Add Deadlines

Students must follow the academic calendar found on the Office of the Registrar website here.

Academic Record Confidentiality

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 (Title 34 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Part 99) is referred to as FERPA, or the Buckley Amendment, and grants to students rights, privileges and protections with respect to their educational records maintained by the faculty, division, School and campus. Please refer to this webpage on the university's website for more information.

Returning Student Papers

It is preferred that faculty return papers to students directly. It is acceptable to ask students for an addressed, stamped envelope to return papers after the end of the semester and/or course. Any student papers that are left in Academic Services for student pick-up must be in a sealed envelope with the student name clearly marked.

International Students

The number of international students in classes at CU Denver is small but growing. International students come to CU Denver from all over the world. Resources for international students and faculty can be found on the Office of International affairs website here.

1. Student claims to be an international student, but faculty are not sure.

The Admissions Office typically assigns student numbers beginning with an 800 (800, 801, or 802) to international students. However, international students may have a real social security number for a student number, and an 800 student number does not guarantee international student status.

International student status (Y/N), visa type, and citizenship can be verified by Academic Services.

2. International student asks for special accommodations based on limited English skills.

The language of instruction at CU Denver is English. International students must meet English proficiency standards to gain admission to the School. Some international students may have limited classroom English skills. Faculty should contact the Office of International Affairs (OIA) at (303) 3152230 for international students with severely limited English skills. At the discretion of faculty, the following accommodations are acceptable in SEHD: use of dictionary at all times (including examinations) and extra time for in-class examinations.

3. International students work in groups for all assignments.

International students seek academic support and often work together. Through course syllabus and discussion of class policies, faculty should emphasize when an individual effort is required. Faculty should establish written guidelines for all students for group and individual efforts on graded assignments.

Students with Disabilities

The University of Colorado Denver is committed to providing reasonable accommodation and access to programs and services to students with disabilities. CU Denver strives to comply with the portions of the Americans for Disabilities Act (ADA) dealing with students.

The Disability Resources and Services Office (DRSO) serve the needs of the diverse community of students with disabilities attending UCD. For information, please contact the DRSO by phone at (303) 315-3510, email DISABILITYRESOURCES@UCDENVER.EDU or go to 1201 Larimer Street (Student Commons Building, Suite 2116). You may also visit their website here.

FACULTY RESPONSIBILITIES

Once students comply with ADA requirements for disability registration with DRSO, faculty must work with DRSO staff and the student to develop reasonable accommodations. Faculty members are not required to comply with requests that alter course requirements. The ADA requires reasonable accommodation, and faculty members are required to consider every student request. The School of Education & Human Development strongly encourages faculty to work with DRSO staff and to rely on their expertise in determining reasonable accommodations.

1. A faculty member is approached by a student claiming a disability and requesting accommodation(s).

It is acceptable to work directly with students; however, faculty are strongly encouraged to work with DRSO to verify that the student is registered and that accommodations are consistent with the disability and academic requirements of the course. Faculty members are not required to provide any accommodations to students not registered with DRSO.

2. Student approaches faculty for accommodations after midterm examinations.

Students are responsible for registration with DRSO and arranging reasonable accommodations at the beginning of the semester. Faculty members are reminded that registration is difficult and requires considerable documentation. If student had difficulty in registering, faculty tolerance is expected. If student waited until achieving poor grades, then faculty are encouraged to treat on a case-by-case basis and work with DRSO staff.

3. A faculty member is uncertain as to what constitutes 'reasonable' accommodation.

DRSO staff is the best resource in arranging reasonable accommodations. Accommodations are dependent upon the disability but may include note takers in class, relaxed deadlines for assignments, tests administered under secure conditions at DRSO office, extra time for in-class examinations, etc.

Dealing with Distressed or Disruptive Students

CARE Team

The Campus Assessment, Response & Evaluation (CARE) Team was created at the University of Colorado Denver | Anschutz campus to address the health and safety needs of students as well as the campus community. The purpose of the team is to assess whether individuals pose a risk to themselves or others and to intervene when necessary, and more generally, to identify and provide assistance to those in need. The team takes a preventative approach to risk assessment by offering resources, referrals, and support to both the concerning individual and those impacted by their behavior. Campus Assessment, Response and Evaluation \(CARE\) Website To submit a Concern or Report a Case, follow this link.

Students with Emotional Issues

Faculty will discover that there is a small, but growing, population of students with emotional problems that interfere with their ability to handle the academic workload and succeed in the classroom. The University of Colorado Denver established the Student and Community Counseling Center to assist students with this need. It is located on the 4th floor of the North Classroom Building in NC 4036. This Center also houses the Counseling and Family Therapy Center which is open to individual faculty and staff, as well as couples and families.

The Student and Community Counseling Center provides free, short-term (up to 10 sessions) counseling to students who may be in need of psychological assistance as well as consultation to faculty on issues related to student behavior. The Center is staffed by professional psychotherapists and advanced graduate counseling students who are supervised by licensed, practicing psychologists and SEHD Counseling faculty members. The Center also refers students to off-campus, long-term counseling when appropriate. The Center provides workshops on stress management, conflict resolution and acculturation issues.

FREQUENTLY ENCOUNTERED SITUATIONS

1. Faculty doesn't know whether to contact the Office of Student Life or Counseling Center for disruptive students with emotional problems.

This is a difficult, judgment call on the part of the faculty member. Faculty with disruptive students that interfere with the classroom learning environment should contact the Office of Student Life. Students with personal problems that do not interfere with the classroom environment should be referred to the Student Counseling Center.

2. Faculty don't know how best to encourage students to seek counseling.

Call the Counseling Center and seek their advice. Faculty with students judged to be a threat to them or others should immediately escort the student to the Counseling Center.

Student Complaints (and How to Avoid Them)

Based on experiences from associate deans, faculty, members of the Student Academic Appeals Committee, and Academic Services staff, the following is a prioritized list of student complaints involving faculty and suggestions on how to avoid them. The first five complaints happen with some frequency. While student complaints at the end of the list happen less frequently, those that do occur are often difficult to resolve.

Faculty Won't Communicate Grade Information and Course Standing to Student

- Establish detailed grading policies on course syllabus
- Routinely communicate grades and class standing on all graded assignments – include attendance and class participation if part of course grade
- Regularly provide student grades in compliance with FERPA policies
- Assign approximate grade or class standing after mid-term and before 10th week drop deadline
- Do not encourage students to continue course past 10th week deadline if performance is poor

Faculty Won't Communicate with Student

- Provide information to students for scheduling an appointment
- Give students your e-mail address and encourage electronic communication
- Return phone calls and e-mail messages promptly - preferably within 24 hours
- Avoid giving students your home phone
- Avoid calling students at their home unless they have left their home phone number on a message, and avoid calling a student after 10pm

Student Complaints about Course Grade

- Detail grading policies on syllabus
- Explain grading policies clearly

- Establish consistent grading policies across sections in a multi-section class
- Keep defensible attendance and class participation records
- Return graded materials in a timely fashion
- Regularly provide grades in compliance with FERPA
- Meet and listen to students who inquire about their grades
- If necessary, refer student to division Chair or Associate Dean
- If necessary, refer student to SEHD Academic Services for formal grade appeal procedures.

Faculty Won't Award Incomplete grade (I)

- State SEHD incomplete policy on syllabus
- Do not award incomplete grade without verified special circumstances
- Never award an incomplete for a student with low grades or a student who must retake the entire course
- Refer an upset student to the appropriate Associate Dean to discuss academic options

Faculty Didn't Inform Student They Were Dropped from Wait List or Not Registered

- Realize students and faculty share responsibility for accurate registration. Students who are attending your class MUST be registered.
- Review class rosters from CU Denver Access and check them against students in the class
- At 1st, 3rd and 5th weeks of semester, notify students when they are participating but not registered

Faculty Don't Adhere to FCQ Guidelines (end of semester course/instructor evaluation)

- Follow directions supplied with Faculty Course Questionnaires
- Avoid any possible faculty connection to administration or collection of FCQs
- Seek a student volunteer to administer, collect, and deliver FCQs to Academic Services

Faculty Ignore Wait Lists When Adding Students to Class

- Review wait list in UCD Access at end of first week of classes
- Do not tell students on the wait list they will be automatically added to the class –responsibility for registration rests with the student
- Recognize that students high on the wait list priority (low priority number) will be upset/concerned if other students are allowed in the class ahead of them

Faculty Humiliate Students in Class

- Never resort to faculty misconduct in response to student misconduct

- Avoid using power of instructor to intimidate students
- State University and SEHD policy on behavior and conduct on syllabus
- Never harass, threaten, demean, humiliate, or talk down to students
- Keep conversations about individual student performance private
- Immediately inform your Program Representative and the appropriate SEHD Associate Dean of student misconduct

Faculty Miss Class (no substitute) and/or are Late to Class/Examination

- Honor commitment to meet every class
- Start examinations on time
- Arrange, if possible, for another instructor to cover your class in case of absence
- If faculty absence is unavoidable, be flexible on required attendance policies
- Contact Academic Services as soon as possible for assistance in notifying students of class meeting changes (by posting signs, emailing students, etc.)

Faculty Are Charged With Sexual Harassment

- Familiarize yourself with CU Denver policies on sexual harassment by visiting the Ombuds' Office webpage.
- Keep all faculty-student relationships at the highest professional level
- Avoid suggestive language/jokes that can be considered sexual harassment
- Refer all cases of alleged sexual harassment to Ombuds Office in the Lawrence Street Center, Suite 1003, 1380 Lawrence Street Denver

Academic Ethics

As members of the CU Denver academic community, faculty and students accept the responsibility to maintain the highest standards of intellectual honesty and ethical conduct in all forms of academic work.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY INCIDENTS

Faculty members are encouraged to handle alleged academic dishonesty cases at the program level first. Many cases of academic dishonesty involve miscommunication and absence of clear policies on syllabus or assignments, which are best handled at the division level. The Associate Dean for Faculty Affairs will work with faculty members and students in an effort to facilitate communication and to resolve the dispute before the end of the semester and the issuance of final grades.

Faculty members who have evidence suggesting a student is guilty of academic dishonesty should:

- Privately provide the student with the evidence
- Listen to the student's perspective and keep communication lines open
- Evaluate all evidence and circumstances
- Determine appropriate consequences (warning, zero/failing grade on assignment, or failing grade for course
- Inform student in writing of decision, if grade is to be lowered in any manner

FACULTY RESPONSIBILITIES

SEHD faculty members have options in handling ethics violations at the division level, up to and including a failing course grade. Any other sanctions (suspension, transcript notation, etc.) desired by the instructor must be forwarded to Associate Dean for Faculty Affairs, Dorothy Garrison-Wade, and/or the SEHD Student Academic Appeals Committee (See Appendix F).

If the faculty decision concerning the alleged academic dishonesty adversely affects the student's assignment or course grade, a letter must be sent to the student with copies to the faculty program representative and SEHD Associate Dean for Faculty Affairs. The letter must outline the charge(s) against the student and inform the student of his or her rights.

Faculty responsibilities in alleged ethics violations that lower a student's grade are summarized below:

- Written notification to student outlining charge(s), statement of student rights, information about ethics policies, and student support services
- Written notification (copy) to the Faculty Program Representative and SEHD Associate Dean for Faculty Affairs
- Student allowed to fully participate in remainder of class
- Student not allowed to drop or withdraw from class
- Compilation of physical and eyewitness evidence for possible submission to the SEHD Student Academic Appeals Committee (See Appendix B)
- Hearing at request of faculty or through appeal by student
- Should the dispute go to the SEHD Student Academic Appeals Committee, the burden of proof resides with the faculty (See Appendix B)

1.Evidence of academic dishonesty against a student is not concrete.

For all student cases evaluated by the SEHD Student Academic Appeals Committee (See Appendix B), the burden of proof is squarely on the faculty member. Situations without compelling evidence should be handled privately with the student and may include verbal warning, specific seating assignment, review of ethics policies with entire class, etc.

2.Faculty believes student downloaded paper from Internet but can't find source.

Web sites have been developed to assist faculty in locating Internet papers and faculty should consult experts in Internet communications. Faculty should consult www.google.com.

3.Student unintentionally violates the academic ethics policy.

It is the student's responsibility to understand and adhere to the CU Denver Academic Honor Code. Faculty members are not required to define academic dishonesty, but are encouraged to place a general statement on the course syllabus that refers students to details of the Academic Honor Code. While an unintentional violation is still a violation, faculty are encouraged to consider intent in determining appropriate consequences (See Appendix I).

Service

Faculty members are expected to contribute toward service activities that support the SEHD's mission. Three criteria will be considered in forming an overall evaluation of faculty performance in this area.

Service to School and University

1. Service to the Profession
2. Service to the Community/Partners

For detailed descriptions of these criteria, please refer to SEHD RTP Standards and Criteria. Also, see Appendix H for SEHD Standing Committees.

Retention, Tenure and Promotion Processes

The evaluation of faculty performance on an annual basis and for the purpose of tenure and promotion begins with the faculty member's primary program or division affiliation. Faculty on tenure and tenure track lines complete a series of milestones during their professorial careers that include the tenure and post-tenure review processes and promotional reviews from assistant to associate to full professor. The complete guide to these processes is available on-line, through the Associate Dean for Faculty Affairs' office and the Provost's office. The handbook, Strategies for Success, is updated frequently. In addition, the School of Education & Human Development's criteria for research and creative activities, Teaching, and Service are available in SEHD RTP Criteria and Standards guidelines located in policy section of SEHD Impact site. For additional resources, see Dorothy Garrison-Wade, Associate Dean for Faculty Affairs and visit the Center for Faculty Development Website.

Faculty Review

Professional Plan

Each faculty member as part of the annual faculty review process completes this report. Faculty must report in the spring on activities planned for the upcoming academic year, including summer, fall, and spring. Forms are distributed to faculty electronically each year at the beginning of the spring semester. The professional plan is reviewed by the Dean and Associate Deans. After the review, the faculty member is notified of the approval status. If the plan is not approved, the faculty member may be asked to provide additional information and/or meet with the Dean and Associate Dean for Faculty Affairs to provide clarifying information.

Faculty Report of Professional Activities (FRPA)

Each faculty member as part of the annual faculty review process completes this report. The form is completed in the February and reports on activities from the preceding academic year. The form will soon be available online, see the Faculty of Professional Activities \(FRPA\) User Guide.

If you have questions contact Dorothy Garrison-Wade, Associate Dean for Faculty Affairs.

Annual Merit Review

The annual merit review is based on accomplishment in teaching, research and service. The Merit Review Committee conducts the annual merit review for all faculty members. The annual merit review process captures a faculty's teaching, research, and service activities across the previous calendar year. The faculty member prepares an electronic merit review dossier, consisting of the FRPA form, Annual Merit Summary Form (Research, Teaching, and Service), Faculty Professional Plan, and CV.

Merit ratings are based on a 5-point scale in each of three areas: teaching, research and service. The Ratings include: 5) Outstanding, 4) Exceeding Expectations, 3) Meeting Expectations, 2) Below Expectations, and 1) Fail to Meet Expectations. The Merit Review Committee reviews merit dossiers and makes recommendations about faculty ratings to the Dean. These ratings impact salary raises that vary from year to year, depending on allocations from the State legislature to institutions of higher education. For additional information, please see the Merit Review Process document or contact Dorothy Garrison-Wade, Associate Dean for Faculty Affairs.

Academic Services

The mission of Academic Services (AS) is to provide support and assist students and faculty to promote the highest standard of learning, teaching, research, and service in the School of Education and Human Development.

Academic Services forms a critical link between current, prospective, and former students in the School of Education and Human Development and the administrative units of the School, the Graduate School, the University, and the Colorado Department of Education. This office provides, among other services, information about degree programs and related processes, admissions, maintains records, and ensures that students meet requirements to graduate. Academic Services supports students at all levels, including undergraduate, graduate, and certificate, endorsement, and licensure students.

Academic Services is also a resource for faculty advisers who need information regarding the procedures their students must follow in the process of pursuing a degree in the School. Academic Services also supports faculty in their research, teaching, and service.

Admissions

Deadlines for admissions are by program area. Please refer to the SEHD website Program Admissions Webpage for deadline dates.

Application instructions and access to the online application are available on the SEHD Website or by contacting Academic Services at EDUCATION@UCDENVER.EDU or 303-315-6300.

Applications are forwarded to program faculty for review. Interview and official admission notifications are processed by Academic Services.

Comprehensive Examination/Graduation

Instructions for registering for a comprehensive exam/culminating experience can be located on the SEHD Website here. Students apply for graduation via their student portal. Deadlines are found on the Office of the Registrar's website here.

Student Records

Current student records are housed in Academic Services. Records are retained per University policy found on the university's website here.

Book Orders and Course Materials

TEXTBOOKS

Book orders are placed directly through the bookstore via their online adoption tool. To begin the process, you'll need to register with the bookstore using a valid e-mail address. We recommend that you use your UCD email. Automatic order confirmations will be sent to the address used.

Email orders to or request a personalized link to our online ordering site from:

Bailey Brack, 303-556-3706, BAILEY.BRACK@AHEC.EDU.

Faculty should contact the publisher directly for exam or desk copies.

COURSE PACKETS

If you need course reading packets, the Auraria Book Center can assist you. Use the following link for more information: <http://auraria.academicpub.com/clientSite/>

For more information, contact the Tivoli Station Book Office at 303-556-3703 or BOOKOFFICE@AHEC.EDU.

Classroom Assignments

Classroom assignments are coordinated by the SEHD Course Coordinator, Shakira Anderson, in conjunction with the Campus Community and Classroom Scheduling Professional. See Academic Services for questions about room equipment, capacity, availability, or to request a room change. Efforts will be made to honor all rooming requests; however, due to a campus-wide shortage of space, this is not always possible.

Classroom Overbooking

Infrequently, faculty and students may encounter a problem of classroom overbooking. If your course is scheduled in Lawrence Street Center, call Academic Services at 303-315-6300 during normal working hours. If your course is scheduled in another building on campus, call AHEC at 303-556-2116. Make sure you have your course number, and the conflicting course number so AHEC can determine where both courses are supposed to be. Please report all rooming conflict issues as soon as possible.

Class Rosters

To minimize problems with student registration and end of semester grades, faculty are required to check the official class roster at the beginning and complete final grading through the UCD Access portal. Faculty should not rely on student attendance and participation (class list generated by passing around a sheet of paper) as an indication of official registration. For instructions on viewing class rosters, please see instructions in UCD Access portal.

Copies

There are SEHD copy machines on the 6th, 7th, and 11th floors for small copying jobs. Your program's copy code will be needed to make copies. To prevent undue wear and tear on the machines, the following rules have been established:

For SEHD copiers, no single copy job should total more than 100 pages.

Large Copy Jobs

A large copy job is considered more than 250 copies. For large copy jobs, send them to the printing services at Anschutz. You will need to contact them by phone at: 303-724-6414. Printing Services Website

They will discuss the project – how many, color, and other specifics. They will need the document to be PDF to their location and will request a speed type. The speed type is generally your department speed type or your PD speed type.

The service is very fast and they deliver.

Scanning Documents

All SEHD copiers are equipped with scanning functions.

Guest Speakers/Visiting Lecturers

The School of Education & Human Development does NOT offer guest speaker fees. Any compensation offered for class speakers is the responsibility of the professor. It is possible to obtain a free parking permit for guest speakers. Academic Services can assist you in ordering a parking pass at least 7 days in advance, given your speaker's name and date of attendance.

Contact the Tech Team if you would like to coordinate a remote guest speaker with online video conferencing at SEHDHELP@UCDENVER.EDU.

Administrative Services

Booking Travel

Faculty members are responsible for booking their own travel. Information and instructions on how to do so can be found on the Procurement Service Center Website here.

For questions regarding University travel, contact the Procurement Service Center FinProHelp@cu.edu or 303-837-2161. Additional administrative support for faculty in travel requests is handled by Kelly Ragland. Faculty seeking assistance should complete a help order request by emailing 'SEHDHELP@UCDENVER.EDU'.

Keys

Key requests should be made with the Assistant to the Dean, JāNet Hurt in LSC 1145. She will submit a key request form to Facilities Management for the necessary key(s) and within two-three business days after a request is submitted, keys may be picked up in Facilities Management on the 3rd floor of the Lawrence Street Center. Individuals must pick up their own keys and are required to present their campus employee identification card at the time of pick up.

Upon termination of employment, individuals must return their keys to SEHD HR personnel during the checkout process. Lost keys should be reported to the Security Guard on duty on the 1st floor of the Lawrence Street Center. There is a fee of $100-$200 for unreturned/lost keys.

ID Card

All faculty and staff are encouraged to have an ID Card. Forms may be obtained from Jessica Coon in LSC 1147. The ID card allows faculty and staff to park on campus, access library services, use the recreation facilities, and gain building and classroom access.

ID ACCESS TO LAWRENCE STREET CENTER

The Lawrence Street Center operating hours are Monday-Friday, 6:00 AM - 8:00 PM and Saturday 7:30 AM - 5:00 PM. The building is closed on Sundays and all campus holidays. In order to access the building, the elevators and all card reader-equipped rooms (which includes all SEHD classrooms and the 11th floor computer lab) after-hours, you must have your campus ID encoded. ID access is authorized by the Assistant to the Dean, J  net Hurt in LSC 1145 and is only given to regular/full-time SEHD faculty and staff and lecturers with class in the LSC after-hours/on weekends. Students are not granted ID access.

To get ID access, please email J  net Hurt with your Employee ID#, the six-digit code on the back right-hand corner of your ID card, and the room(s) you need access to.

Mail

Mail for full-time faculty and staff is distributed to the mailboxes on the floor where that person's office is located. Mailboxes for faculty and staff on the 6th floor are located in 605; on the 7th floor mailboxes are located in Academic Services in 701; mailboxes on the 11th floor are located in the kitchen (1132). Each set of mailboxes has a slot (usually toward the end of all the mailboxes) for outgoing mail and intercampus mail. Intercampus mail should be put in an envelope and clearly labeled with the name, building and office number or campus mailbox of the recipient.

Outgoing mail must be stamped or include a mail code number for postal charges. If you do not know your mail code, please contact Timothy Halliday in LSC 1122. There is also a U.S. mail drop box located in front of the Lawrence Street Center.

FAXES

There are fax machines in the workrooms on the 6th (605) and 11th (1132) floors, and in Academic Services in LSC 701. Dialing out on the fax machine is the same as using any other campus phone line. For on-campus faxes, dial only the campus extension (last 5 digits of the phone number); for off-campus faxes, dial "9" and the ten digit number. When sending a fax long-distance, a long-distance code is also required.

Voicemail

It is each individual's responsibility to retrieve and respond to his/her own messages in a timely manner. To access the voicemail system from any phone other than your office phone, dial 303-724-MAIL (6245) or 46245. You will hear a recording that says "Thank you for calling The University of Colorado Denver..." Hit the # button. It will then ask for your mailbox number. Your mailbox number/extension is the last 5 digits of your phone number (5-6346). To access the voicemail system from your office phone, hit the messages button. When you call the voicemail system from your office phone, it will NOT ask you for your mailbox number. It will immediately say "Please enter your security code".

Detailed instructions for using the campus voicemail system are available here: [\[1\]](#)

Additionally, if you would like to have your phone voicemail set-up to allow you to check it using your campus email, please contact the SEHD Tech Team. You can review the Cisco Phone Training PDF online here. A suggested voice mail greeting containing key information is below:

Hello! This is (your name), (your title) of the (office/program) at the CU Denver School of Education & Human Development. My normal office hours are (days, times). If you have reached this greeting during those hours, I am on the phone or away from my desk. Please leave a message that includes your name and phone number, and be assured that your call will be returned as soon as possible. If you need immediate assistance, please call (name and phone number). Thank you.

If you plan to be away from your office for an extended period of time, please remember to change your voice mail greeting indicating the dates you will be away and giving the caller an alternate contact source.

Parking

Parking on campus is fairly limited and during the semester it can be difficult to find a parking spot. Covered monthly parking is available to CU Denver faculty and staff under the Lawrence Street Center, the CU Building and the Business School Building. The cost varies ($125-$140/month) and payment is done through payroll deduction. If you are interested in signing up for monthly parking, email dc_facilities_dispatch@ucdenver.edu or call 303-315-7777.

There are also parking lots on campus (not limited to staff/faculty) where you can park for a daily fee. The daily fee lot closest to the Lawrence Street Center is the Tivoli Parking Garage located at the corner of 9th Street and Auraria Parkway where parking is offered for an hourly rate or $6.25 max daily fee. Auraria campus also offers the Parking Passport program which is a pre-paid parking option that allows daily parking in most campus lots at a discounted rate and provides in and out privileges. The Parking Passport is available for a semester purchase or on an annual basis and 5-day options beginning at $125. For more details please contact the Parking & Transportation Services office or visit their website: <http://www.ahec.edu/for-campus-faculty-staff/parking-transportation-services/>. To view a campus parking map with all available lots and parking rates, visit: <http://www.ahec.edu/about-auraria-campus/maps/>

Auraria Parking Services offers re-entry permits for faculty and staff that need to leave campus for job-related activities (i.e. meetings, classes, etc.) and return the same day. The permit allows you to pay once and park in the same lot on the same day with no additional charges. An application for a re-entry permit can be picked up from and signed by the Assistant to the Dean in LSC 1145.

Other parking options include 2 hr. parking meters on Lawrence Street and 14th Street. Keep your sense of humor and give yourself plenty of time to search for an open spot.

The Eco Pass for RTD buses and Light Rail is available through a payroll deduction of $25 per month. For information on the RTD Eco-Pass, visit: <http://www.ahec.edu/for-campus-faculty-staff/parkingtransportation-services/public-transit-rtd-and-alternative-transportation/>

Official Functions - Events/Meetings

OFFICIAL FUNCTIONS

An official function is a meeting, meal, or other function that is hosted by an organizational unit, attended by guests and/or associates or employees, and held for official university business. All official functions must comply with the Administrative Policy Statement.

Official functions and training functions shall be held to achieve program objectives and shall be limited to reasonable and actual costs. The attendance of employees at these functions shall be kept to a minimum and shall include only those individuals directly related to the purpose of the function. Expenditures shall be kept to a minimum as they have the potential of being perceived to be for a personal benefit and an abuse of public funds.

Official functions require 'prior approval' either through inclusion in a program or unit's annual budget or through communication with the appropriate Associate Dean who oversees the content area, service unit, or center. See the following link for policies and forms for official functions:

<https://www.cu.edu/psc/procedures/>

CATERING

Catering expenses that will be funded or reimbursed from an SEHD account must be approved prior to the date of the event. In some cases Dean's approval may be required, depending on the dollar amount and/or nature of the transaction.

Based on these policies, we ask that you consider the following in deciding to incur official function expenditures:

- Is the function for official university business purposes only and is it necessary to achieve the program objectives?

- Are the costs reasonable?
- Is the attendance of employees limited to a minimum and include only those individuals necessary and directly involved with the objectives of the function?

Avoid official functions that consist of only university employees discussing university business. Training functions and retreats should be limited in frequency, and should be included as part of a program, service unit or center’s annual budget.

Always ask yourself if you would be comfortable justifying the expenditures to a newspaper reporter and being associated with the expenditures in a newspaper article.

Examples of Non-Approved Activities	Examples of Approved Activities
Dinner/lunch with only SEHD faculty/staff members	SEHD Faculty and Staff Retreats/Training
Ordering a meal for a class	Workshops
Refreshments at a monthly program or unit meeting	Faculty search dinners

All room requests for non-course meetings/gatherings should be submitted by email to: SEHDHELP@UCDENVER.EDU. Please be sure to include the following information in your request:

- Meeting Title
- Date
- Start AND End Time (be sure to include necessary set-up and clean-up time)
- Number Attending/Expected
- Any Technological Equipment Needed

All SEHD classrooms are scheduled on a per semester basis and only after all SEHD courses are roomed for the current semester. Conference rooms can be booked on an annual basis and all room requests are handled on a first-come basis. All class and conferences rooms are smartrooms, and are equipped with a data projector, computer, and laptop input (minimum). See the Information & Academic Technology section for a listing.

Purchasing and Expense Reimbursements

Please obtain guidance regarding purchasing and reimbursements before making a purchase independently.

All requests will be processed pending confirmation of sufficient funds from the expense account indicated. Most, if not all, purchasing can be done without the faculty member incurring costs with personal monies.

General Purchasing and Supplies

When making a general purchase (see below for Technology Purchasing) using professional development funds or program funds:

1. FIRST, contact Tim Halliday to ensure the funds are available; this must be done prior to purchase. TIM.HALLIDAY@UCDENVER.EDU
2. SECOND, submit a purchase/procurement request to by filling out the form found at this link and you will be assisted.

Supplies must be ordered through the state vendor. Reminder: Supplies ordered outside the state vendor may not be reimbursable.

Julia Cummings, Marketing Director, will place orders for nametags, letterhead, envelopes and stationery through the CU Denver Print shop.

Business cards should be ordered through the Printing Services Website here.

For assistance in ordering business cards, please submit a request to SEHDHELP@UCDENVER.EDU, and Kelly Ragland will assist you.

The School does not have a general account to pay for these items; expense approval by a budget authority (Program representative or Associate Dean) must be obtained prior to ordering.

Technology Purchasing

Technology purchasing is coordinated by the SEHD Tech Team. ALL technology purchasing using university funds (including professional development and grant funds) MUST be done through the Tech Team and requires prior approval by a budget authority. Submit a request for a technology purchase to SEHDHELP@UCDENVER.EDU.

Expense Reimbursement

All purchases must have prior approval from the budget authority (generally a faculty member's program representative or their Associate Dean) before reimbursements will be processed. Original receipts should be submitted to Tim Halliday with the SEHD finance office with expense account information. Reminder: CU Denver is a tax exempt institution, so any sales tax incurred may not be reimbursable. Be sure and use the University tax exempt number when purchasing.

Travel Procedures

Official travel is paid by the university or external grant funds. Faculty should first check with their program representative to determine if planned travel is covered by the program budget. In the case of externally funded projects, the Principal Investigator (PI) should be consulted. Faculty should never assume that travel will be covered through the university without first checking with the appropriate source.

To submit a Travel Request form, follow this link.

Faculty are responsible for booking their own travel. Information and instructions on how to do so can be found at the following link on the Procurement Service Center website here.

For answers to all questions about travel, including a step-by-step guide, visit the Procurement Service Center website here.

Administrative support for faculty in travel requests is handled by Kelly Ragland. 'Faculty seeking assistance should complete a help order request by emailing 'SEHDHELP@UCDENVER.EDU.

Main Points to Remember:

1. You must receive authorization from your program representative or Associate Dean BEFORE incurring travel expenses. If you are using PD funds, Tim Halliday to ensure you have enough funds.
2. Apply for the corporate liability travel card if you plan on traveling frequently (See US Bank Travel Card below). Training must be completed before this card is issued.
3. The University uses Christopherson Travel for all travel bookings (<https://www.cu.edu/psc/travel/christopherson-business-travel>). It is possible to purchase a flight on your own if you find a ticket cheaper than Christopherson's price but you must obtain and submit a quote from Christopherson as proof of the lower fare in order to be reimbursed. Talk to Tim Halliday for more information.
4. You cannot use your travel card for conference registration. The travel card should be used for hotel and all other travel related expenses.
5. Please do not use your travel card for meals. You will be reimbursed for the per diem rate in effect in the locale in which you are traveling. If the meal expense exceeds this amount, this is a personal expense to you and you will not be reimbursed.
6. Keep itemized receipts for all expenses.
7. When you return, submit all receipts to your Concur delegate (Tim Halliday, Tracy Lee or Bolormaa Begzsuren).
8. Reimburse CU for any personal expenses on your travel card at the time when you turn in your receipts or if you have enough per diem to cover these expenses, your per diem will be reduced by this amount.
9. Your travel expenses must be reallocated within 90 days of the end of your trip or this becomes taxable income to you. This is a firm deadline that cannot be changed. Please allow your Concur delegate 2-3 weeks before the 90 day deadline to submit reimbursements on your behalf.

US BANK TRAVEL CARD

The U.S. Bank Travel Card is the State Travel Card. All University employees who travel on business for the University should apply for the card and use it for all travel-related expenses. Please note that this card is a University card and the traveler is responsible for retaining all receipts and turning them in to your Concur delegate for reallocation as soon as your travel is complete. These expenses do not generate email reminders the same way that the P-card does and will sit in the system and not hit a speedtype until reallocated. This may result in budgets being inaccurate and extra work at year end for the finance staff. Please see Tim Halliday if you wish to order this card.

There is a very handy Concur smartphone application that will allow you to take a photo of and upload receipts as you travel. You can also initiate travel with this application. Once you have downloaded the application, your user ID will be your Employee ID @cu.edu (for example 123456@cu.edu). Before you can log into this app, you must go to the concur system on your computer and take the following steps:

- Once logged in, click the profile link and let the whole screen come up or choose mobile registration. If the whole screen comes up –go the bottom left and choose mobile registration.
- Click the blue link that says “create a mobile PIN” - this will be the PIN that you use to login to the app.
- Again your user ID will be your EID@cu.edu.
- If you have any problems with the app, please call the help desk at 303-837-2161.

Conference Registration

University travelers often find that they need to pay registration fees for a conference or meeting they plan to attend. How the expense is submitted—for direct payment to the vendor, or for reimbursement to the traveler—varies according to the timing of the payment and the needs of the vendor. The possible vehicles for payment are (1) the Procurement Card (P-Card), or (2) the Payment Voucher form.

Maximum Meal Reimbursement

Meal reimbursement is for the actual cost of the traveler's meals. To ensure these costs are reasonable, actual costs are limited to a Maximum Meal Reimbursement amount specific to the geographic travel location. The State of Colorado's Maximum Allowable Meal Per Diem Rates represent the University's Maximum Meal Reimbursement amount; for maximum allowable rates, refer to <https://www.cu.edu/psc/payables/travel.htm> and go to Per Diem Meal Rate on the right hand side of the webpage.

Part of daily M & I (Meals and Incidental Expenses) is per diem. Dollar limits for breakfast, lunch, and dinner, are determined by the traveler's destination. The meal per diem represents the maximum reimbursable amount for eligible meals during the course of a university business trip. Meal reimbursement is not allowed if adequate meals are included with lodging, as part of conference/registration fees, or otherwise provided to the traveler at no cost. Amounts in excess of meal per diem are not reimbursable unless part of a required official function. (Tips on meals are included in these amounts and cannot be claimed separately.) No receipts are required.

On days of travel, the final destination for the day determines the traveler's per diem rate all day. On the day traveler returns home, the city from which the traveler leaves determines the per diem rate.

On begin and end travel days, reimbursement cannot exceed 75% of the daily M&I per diem rate.

Meals During Single-Day Trip

If travel is wholly within a single day and if the trip lasts 12 hours or more, then meal reimbursement is allowed. Reimbursement cannot exceed 75% of the daily M&I per diem rate. Meal reimbursements for singleday trips are reportable as income for CU employees.

In-State Travel Procedures

All travelers on University business—faculty, staff, students, and non-employees—will follow these procedures when in travel status within the state and in the immediate area outside Colorado that is a necessary part of an otherwise in-state trip: The traveler must always obtain prior approval to travel; for instate travel, this approval may be verbal.

In accordance with Internal Revenue Service requirements, the following reimbursements will be reported to the IRS as income:

- reimbursements that were not submitted through Concur within 90 days after the last day of travel completion; and,
- advances issued by the University if the subsequent Travel Voucher reconciling the advance was not submitted within 30 days of trip completion. (If the traveler needs to repay the University for a too-large advance, then this repayment must be made by personal check at the time that the Concur travel report is submitted.)

Out-Of-State and International Travel Procedures

Travel on sponsored program (grant) money requires approval from the Office of Grants and Contracts.

Please refer to <https://www.cu.edu/psc/payables/travel.htm> for information on vehicle rental, lodging deposits, mileage reimbursements and travel advances and International travel.

Reimbursement is NOT appropriate for:

- On-campus parking (Be sure to apply for re-entry privileges if you come & go to prevent payment more than once a day.)
- Parking tickets from the police
- Driving off-campus to have lunch with other professionals, even for purposes of business Lunch
- Other expenses that are denied by a dean (Please check in advance if you think there will be any concerns or questions!)

Receipts are always required for reimbursement of car rental costs and for rental car gasoline purchases regardless of dollar amount. (Note: If travel is covered by sponsored project funds, rental vehicle use will be determined by sponsor policies and may not be allowed).

Tax Implications: Per IRS regulations, the Concur expense reallocation and all supporting documentation must be received in the PSC Travel Office within 90 days of trip completion to avoid having reimbursement reported as income.

Payroll

Standard faculty appointments (tenure track and non-tenure track) are for one academic year, nine months, beginning September 1 and ending May 31. It is important to note that payroll is spread over these nine months, but faculty contracts include the stipulation that they will begin work one week prior to the first day of each semester.

Faculty may elect to have their nine-month salary spread over twelve months, September 1 to August 31. SEHD HR will send out a Pay Election Form every spring if you want your pay spread changed for the following year. Once the choice has been communicated and payroll set up for the year, it cannot be changed until the next academic year.

Faculty and staff are paid on the last business day of each month, except for the month of June. Per state legislation, June payday is the first business day of July.

Full-time nine-month faculty earn $\frac{1}{2}$ month (11 business days) of sick leave at the completion of each academic year. This is tracked manually by SEHD HR. Please notify the SEHD HR and Payroll Coordinator (Jessica Coon) if you must take any sick leave. If you will miss a week or more of work, please contact the SEHD HR Director (Patricia Ball) for FMLA information. You may view the campus FML policy at the Employee Services website here.

Employees who are on a 12-month appointment (associate/assistant deans, 12-month research faculty, professional research assistants, classified and university staff) must submit leave requests to their supervisor through their employee portal. Monthly employees must submit a timesheet electronically through their portal by the 5th day of each month (for leave taken the previous month). Please contact the SEHD HR and Payroll Coordinator (Jessica Coon) for training, technical assistance, or questions.

SUMMER PAYROLL

Employees who are appointed for 12 months (deans, 12-month research faculty, university staff, research faculty, and classified staff) are paid during the summer as they are during the academic year. Faculty with separate summer appointments are paid on varying schedules according to their assignments. The basis of summer pay* is the number of credit hours of the course at the Dean's discretion. Currently, a faculty member will receive \$6,000 per three credit hour course (up to two courses) that meets minimum enrollment (see pro-rated calculations below). Please note that under enrolled courses may be canceled and pay is prorated for under enrolled courses that have not been canceled. Faculty may earn up to $\frac{3}{9}$ ths (33.33%) of their previous academic year salary in the summer, through teaching, administrative, and grant pay. Pay will be distributed equally either Jun-Aug or Jun-July, no matter when the class starts and ends. Per university policy, faculty are allowed to receive up to $\frac{1}{9}$ th (11.11%) of their AY salary each month in the summer. The faculty pay policy can be found on the Human Resources website here.

Summer Pay & Pro-Rate Calculations for Tenured/Tenure-Track Faculty

For undergraduate & graduate level courses:

- $6,000 (Full Pay)
- $4,000 (8-11 students enrolled)
- $3,000 OR CANCEL (7 or fewer students enrolled)

For doctoral level courses:

- $6,000 (Full Pay)
- $4,000 (6-9 students enrolled)
- $3,000 OR CANCEL (MINIMUM of 5 students enrolled)

ADDITIONAL RENUMERATION

Faculty members must submit a completed Additional Pay Pre-Approval form to the SEHD Payroll Liaison (Hiromi Akena) at least two weeks prior to starting the work (we request as much lead time as possible).

Please contact Hiromi for the current form, which requires signatures from the Program Representative, the Associate Dean, and the Dean. Please keep in mind that additional pay during the academic year is limited to 10% of your academic year salary. For more detail on this University policy, please see the University of Colorado Faculty Handbook.

You may also obtain the University rules regarding additional remuneration on the Human Resources website here.

ADDITIONAL RENUMERATION FOR CONSULTATIVE SERVICES

From Regents Policy 5E: With prior written approval by the dean or appropriate campus authority, faculty members shall be permitted to receive additional remuneration from sources outside the university so long as the activities generating the income do not exceed one-sixth of their time and effort. Outside work during leaves of absence shall be of concern only to the individual and the entity by which he/she is employed.

SEHD HR will send out a Declaration of Outside Consulting Form every fall for pre-approval of your outside consulting pay.

Student Employment

Please see the SEHD Impact Site for the SEHD Student Hiring Guide.

Student hourly employees (excluding PhD RAs funded from a grant) are limited to working 25 hours/week during the academic year (Aug 15 – May 15) and 40 hours/week during the summer (May 15 - Aug 15) across all positions on all campuses. For full policy on student work hours, visit the SEHD IMPACT Site here.

Complete an online request form to submit a request to post a student position or request a new student hire.

For more information on student employment, please contact the SEHD HR and Payroll Coordinator (Jessica Coon). A complete Request to Hire form must be submitted to the SEHD HR and Payroll Coordinator PRIOR to any offer of employment or initiation of work.

Information Management

Marketing

Julia Cummings is the Marketing Director for SEHD. She is responsible for collaborating with SEHD faculty, staff, students and alumni as well as University Communications and the CU Foundation to advance SEHD's image and standing among wide-ranging target audiences. Her work includes marketing plans and strategy, advertising, website content, photography, publications, videos, mass email communications, promotional items, brochures, fliers, managing our faculty's interaction with the news media, and proofing all SEHD items that include SEHD/CU Denver branding. New faculty will work with Julia to initiate their biography/photo on the SEHD website. Please don't hesitate to contact Julia if you'd like to know more about what she can do for you. Julia Cummings, JULIA.CUMMINGS@UCDENVER.EDU, 303-315-6339, LSC 1141.

Accreditation and Program Effectiveness

DATA COLLECTION, REPORTING, LEARNING OUTCOMES, IDI, SCHOOL STATISTICS, AND SPECIAL REQUESTS

The SEHD Office of Accreditation and Program Effectiveness is responsible for developing and maintaining coordination of accreditation and outcomes assessment work within the SEHD; between the SEHD and other University offices; and between the SEHD, CDE, and DHE. The Office is responsible for activities related to accreditation and reauthorization requirements of the SEHD. This office fulfills all external data reporting requirements for federal, national, and state agencies. Internally, the Office maintains the official assessment records for current and former students, academic program assessments and management of databases that track relevant assessment data across all programs. This Office manages and maintains the SEHD PLACE and Praxis result database. The Office is responsible for student and employer surveys. Student surveys are administered to all students as they graduate/complete and again later as alumni; in addition, initial licensure students are surveyed when they begin their program. Student dispositions are assessed with the IDI instrument, and this process is managed by this Office. Please contact the Executive Director of Accreditation, if you need assistance: Julie O'brian, julie.obrian@ucdenver.edu 303-315-6352, LSC 723.

All programs have identified key common assessments (or performance-based assessments, PBA) that reflect important student learning in their courses. Program faculty is responsible for using those PBAs and ensuring that adjunct faculty members use them. Faculty link the PBAs to their Canvas course shells so that student results on these PBAs are automatically entered into LiveText. The Office of Accreditation and Program Effectiveness provides training support videos and documents, as well as other support as necessary and upon request. Program faculty is asked to periodically review the PBAs to ensure they are current and appropriate. The Office provides all new students with LiveText accounts.

To assess student dispositions and the SEHD impact on change with regard to this, the Office of Accreditation and Program Effectiveness administers the Intercultural Development Inventory (IDI) to all students upon entry and exit from their programs. In conjunction with Academic Services, the Office uses new student orientation meetings and communications to ensure compliance with the entry IDI. Faculty teaching entry level courses may be provided with lists of new students enrolled in their courses who have not yet taken the IDI and asked to encourage compliance. Upon program completion, the IDI post-test appears on the graduation checklist and the Office sends individual reminders to students who have not yet completed it.

For purposes of the Higher Learning Commission (HLC), the University requires each program area and the SEHD to submit student learning reports annually in the fall. The Office of Accreditation and Program

Effectiveness supports program faculty in this process by providing data from the PBAs associated with each program. The critical data for the HLC reports are student results on the PBAs during the previous 12 month period, and these are provided in the form of summary reports in the LiveText Exhibit Center.

The Office serves as the liaison to the University Assessment Office and sits on the campus Assessment Committee, and as such serves as a communication mechanism for faculty and staff to this group. The Office also sits on the University Survey Working Group and serves as a liaison for faculty and staff to this group.

A wide variety of program data are provided to program faculty and staff at regularly scheduled time periods during the academic year. This includes PBA results, Place/Praxis results, application/admission/matriculation data, enrollment trend data, student exit and graduate survey data, IDI data, client satisfaction data, demographics of professional development schools, and graduate placement and persistence data; graduate performance data will be provided as well when they are available from the state, which is anticipated to be in 2015-16. Electronic data reports are provided in the LiveText Exhibit Center.

SUBMITTING INTERNAL DATA REQUESTS

If faculty or staff needs data for a report or general operating decisions, please contact the Office of Accreditation and Program Effectiveness. Be prepared to discuss the purpose, specific data elements, timeframe, and reporting format with Office staff so that the resulting data fit your need. Whenever possible, allow sufficient lead time, particularly with large requests. The Office works closely with campus Institutional Research and Registrar's Office staff to coordinate the completion of data requests.

PROGRAM EVALUATION ASSISTANCE

If program faculty or administrators would like consultation or assistance on program evaluation (for purposes of continuous improvement) support, please contact the Office of Accreditation and Program Effectiveness.

Other Important Information

SEHD Meeting Calendar

A calendar of activities is distributed to all faculty and staff before the fall semester begins and includes all regularly scheduled meetings that include the faculty as a whole, program and committee meetings. Special events and important deadlines and information are announced in bi-weekly updates sent by the Dean's Office through email to all SEHD faculty and staff.

Emergencies and Security Issues

In case of an on-campus emergency or immediate safety hazard, call 911 from any campus phone. If calling from a cell phone or off-campus phone, please call Auraria Campus Police at 303-556-5000.

All CU Denver employees are covered by the Colorado Workers' Compensation Act for any injury or illness arising out of the course of employment with the University.

Get appropriate medical treatment as follows:

- For an EMERGENCY call 911 or go to the closest urgent care facility or emergency room. - For a non-emergency or any follow-up medical care, you must seek treatment with a Designated Medical Provider \(DMP\). - Establish contact with your supervisor or faculty sponsor/designee to: * Ensure they are aware of your injury/illness. * Report any time you have lost work because of the injury/illness. * Bring any medical reports you receive to these contacts so they have verification of your ability to return to work. - Follow instructions from the DMP regarding medications, restrictions and treatment. - Attend all medical appointments. If you have medical questions, discuss them with the DMP. - The assigned adjuster may or may not contact you regarding your claim. If you have additional questions or concerns contact the URM main office at 303-860-5682 or toll free at 888-812-9601.

In case of fire alarm or bomb threat, all building occupants MUST leave the building immediately until the threat is over. This includes participants in any and all meetings and classes that might be in session at the time. If the tornado alarm sounds, everyone should move to the first floor, preferably to a stairwell or some other inside location away from windows. To protect yourself and your property at work, please take the following steps:

- When in the building outside regular business hours, keep your office locked at all times.
- When using the copy room or any other office, do not leave these doors unlocked or ajar.

LOCKING UP VALUABLES

Unfortunately, a number of thefts are reported on campus and in our building each semester, so please DO NOT leave valuables unattended even for brief periods. Every office should have a locking cabinet or drawer for valuables. If you are on campus late and would like to be escorted to your car, call the Night Rider Service at 303-556-2001. An officer will meet you at the building entrance and escort you. If you lock yourself out of your office and no one is available to let you in, contact the security officer on the first floor. You will be asked to show your campus ID.

General Maintenance and Repairs

For general maintenance and repair, including burnt-out light bulbs, heating/cooling problems, restroom maintenance, etc., please call Facilities Dispatch at 303-315-7777, or email them at DC_FACILITIES_DISPATCH@UCDENVER.EDU. You can also submit a work request into their ticket system by signing in online using your university credentials.

SEHD Kitchens

The kitchens are for the use of all School of Education & Human Development faculty and staff. All efforts to keep this area clean are appreciated. Please do not leave dirty dishes in the kitchens, if you need to soak your dishes, please keep them in your office while doing so. The refrigerator is emptied of all unlabeled food on a regular basis. Anyone who uses the refrigerator is requested to take an occasional turn cleaning the kitchen. Please do not encourage students to use the kitchens. There is a café as well as vending machines and a microwave, located on the first floor of the Lawrence Street Center for student use. Each SEHD kitchen on the 6th, 7th and 11th floors have a carpet sweeper for use between vacuuming. Please make sure to return the sweeper to the kitchen when you are finished.

Shared Spaces

Because our space is extremely limited, it is important that we respect shared classroom/meeting areas and our colleagues who may have meetings directly following our own. In all SEHD spaces, the meeting facilitator is responsible for leaving rooms as they were found. Food and drink may not be left in a room and tables should be wiped down. Housekeeping will only empty the trash receptacles. If a caterer is contracted, the meeting coordinator is to ensure timely pick up of leftovers and dishes. Clean-up is NOT a staff responsibility.

If during an event the carpet is soiled to the point that cleaning is necessary, charges for the cleaning will be transferred to the account of the program/area that reserved the space.

APPENDIX C: Common Terms

'Census Date: 'Census date is an official campus-wide date that falls approximately two and one-half weeks after the first day of class in each term. Census date is the deadline for several processes, including registering by telephone, adding classes without instructor and Dean approvals, dropping classes (with tuition adjustment), requesting No Credit or Pass/Fail grades, registering for candidate for degree, submitting the faculty/staff waiver, and petitioning for reduction in dissertation hours.

'D1: 'Courses offered on campus, through the regular course schedule and registration process, with standard CU Denver tuition rates.

'D2: 'Continuing and Professional Education courses and conferences. D2 activities can be for credit or not for credit and may carry Continuing Education Units (CEUs). This is an entrepreneurial arm of the School of Education & Human Development, providing educational opportunities annually to approximately 3500 students.

Tenure Track Faculty* are full-time, tenured or tenure-track faculty members holding the rank of Assistant Professor, Associate Professor, or Professor. Tenure track faculty members need to have regular (or, in some rare cases, “special”) appointments to the CU Denver Graduate Faculty.

Senior Instructors or Clinical Teaching Track Professors (assistant, associate or full) are not on tenure-track appointments. Most senior instructors teach full time and have no responsibility for research, while Clinical Teaching Professors have limited research responsibility. Some have grants that permit grant-related work. They have the same service responsibilities that tenure track faculty have. Senior instructors and clinical teaching track professors need to be eligible for “special” appointment to the CU Denver Graduate Faculty.

Research Professors can hold the rank of Assistant Research Professor, Associate Research Professor, or Research Professor. These faculty are typically responsible for grant-related work on a full time basis.

Lecturers may teach up to six credits per semester in the fall and spring and summer. Unlike tenure track faculty and faculty who are senior instructors, there are no additional expectations for lecturers, such as student advising, research, internal and external service, and so on. Lecturers need to be eligible for “special” appointment to the CU Denver Graduate Faculty.

Adjunct faculty members teach according to the lecturer guidelines above. In addition, an adjunct faculty member receives a stipend to assist the program faculty with specifically defined activities that may include student advising, program or curriculum development, preparation of accreditation reports, and so on. Adjunct faculty members need to be eligible for “special” appointment to the CU Denver Graduate Faculty.

Locations of Courses: On-campus courses are courses offered through the regular SEHD registration process, and meet in classrooms on the Auraria campus. Off-campus state funded courses are part of SEHD programs that are outside of the Denver metropolitan area. Examples of sites where these programs have been located are Durango, Glenwood Springs, and Canon City. Off-campus courses are Continuing and Professional Education courses that are held off campus in places typically arranged by those who set up the courses.

Types of Courses: Most courses offered by the School of Education & Human Development fall into CCHE's "Type A, Lecture" category. "Type A, Lecture" courses must provide 750 minutes of instructional time per credit hour, per semester. Thus, a typical 3-credit-hour course must provide 2250 minutes of instructional time during the semester it is taught. This translates to meeting for 15 weeks when a class is three hours in length. Other SEHD courses—such as practicum, internships, independent studies, and doctoral dissertations—fall into the "Type B" category.

APPENDIX D: Graduate Program Procedures

Admission to Candidacy	Doctoral students submit their form upon completion of coursework and passing the comprehensive exam. The deadline is listed on the University of Colorado Denver Academic Calendar. The application is available online from the graduate school. The application should be signed by the student's advisor and submitted to Academic Services.	Comprehensive Examination/Thesis Defense	Students must be registered for a class or 1 credit Candidate for Degree during the term they take their comprehensive exam. The comprehensive exam is considered to be a time exam, project, portfolio, or take-home exam. The signed examination reports require a committee of three members of the graduate faculty. The dissertation proposal defense serves as the comprehensive exam for EdD students.	Deadlines	The School of Education & Human Development deadlines (for filling the Admission to Candidacy, for scheduling and holding the Comprehensive Examination, for thesis format review, and for filing the thesis) are published each semester in the Academic Calendar.	Graduate Courses	All courses that count toward a graduate degree must be approved by the degree-granting graduate program. At least 30 hours must be considered of graduate rank and must be 5000 level or above.

Minimum GPA	A minimum GPA of 3.0 is required in courses applied to a degree program. Grades of C or better are accepted for the master's degree program unless the program specifies otherwise (field courses may require a higher grade). Courses applied to a graduate degree may not be taken pass/fail.	Probation	If a student's cumulative GPA falls below 3.0, the student will be placed on academic probation. In the semester following placement on probation, the student's course work. GPA must be at least 3.0 or the student will be suspended. At the end of two semesters after being placed on probation, the student must raise his/her cumulative GPA to 3.0 or he/she will be suspended.	Readmission	If a student does not register for three consecutive terms, he/she will need to be readmitted before registering for classes. At a minimum, this involves the student filling out Part I of the Graduate Admission Application form (which includes the In State Tuition Classification Application). APPENDIX F: Student Academic Appeals

School of Education and Human Development

Student Committee Appeals Process

Purposes

One purpose of the Student Committee (SC) is to review students' academic appeals regarding retention, disenrollment, dismissal and other academic matters such as grade appeal, academic dishonesty, or honor code issues. The committee assumes an impartial and unbiased stance toward all participants in the academic appeal process, and focuses on adherence to university policy and basic standards of fairness and professionalism. Appeals are heard by this committee at the written request of an SEHD student. Appeals may originate from students in any degree or licensure program in the SEHD to which the student has been admitted. The SC's decision will be communicated to the student, faculty involved in the decision under appeal, the Associate Dean who oversees the program, and the Dean. The SC's decision will be considered final unless the student chooses to appeal directly to the Dean according to the procedures outlined below.

Committee Composition

The committee is composed of faculty members from multiple SEHD programs and one SEHD staff representative. Typically, faculty members serve for two years, with the possibility of continuing to serve longer. Each year a committee chair is elected from the members of the SC. The chair directs regular SC meetings and, in conjunction with the Director of Academic Services and/or his/her designee, advises students and faculty on SC policies and procedures and schedules the committee for appeal hearings.

Student Academic Appeals

The SC hears appeals that relate directly to academic issues. These issues may include, but are not limited to:

- dismissal from an SEHD degree program;
- grade appeals and problems related to course grades;
- appeals related to comprehensive examinations or activities and qualifying examinations or activities;
- academic honor code issues.

The SC might refer non-academic appeals to other avenues of appeal, including, but not limited to:

- sexual harassment or discrimination of any kind - CU Denver Civil Rights Officer;
- financial concerns - Bursar's Office or Financial Aid;
- student conduct - Student Code of Conduct;
- teacher licensure - Colorado Department of Education; other, or more general concerns - CU Denver Ombuds Office.

When appeals are reviewed by the committee, only materials directly relevant to the appeal will be considered. The student and the faculty member or members involved in the appeal should keep documentation of and materials related to the appeal for a period of five years from the beginning of the semester in which the issue(s) relevant to the appeal began. An official file of all materials will be kept by the SEHD (see "Retention of Academic Appeals Materials" below).

Faculty Participants in Student Academic Appeals

Faculty participants in the academic appeal process are those faculty members who have been part of the decision making process under appeal, witness(es) to student/faculty discussions, administrators and other CU Denver officials as required for purposes of clarity, safety and procedural propriety. Other examples of participants include a course instructor or instructors, program area faculty, internship supervisors, and program teams.

'Student Participants in the Student Academic Appeals Process'

Student participants in the academic appeals process are the student who has filed an appeal for the SC to review and another person to accompany the grievant to Appeal Level 3 (if applicable). The other person may be a friend, colleague, classmate or faculty member, but not a member of the SEHD staff.

Academic Appeal Procedures

Appeal Level One-Initial Decision

1. The first step in an appeal is for the student to meet with the faculty member or members who made the decision the student wishes to contest. Issues pertaining to the student's grade or performance, evaluation criteria for decision making or differences of opinion that exist should be discussed in an attempt to work through the disagreement. This first step of meeting with faculty member(s) should take place as soon as possible after the precipitating decision and in no case later than 30 days after the end of the term in which this decision took place. All such initial meetings should be attended by at least one additional (neutral) CU Denver faculty member or administrator who will serve as observer and note-taker. Appeal Level Two-Student Committee Review

- If the issue remains unresolved after the student/faculty member meeting, the student may appeal to the SC through a written request submitted to the chair of the SEHD SC within 30 days after the meeting with faculty member(s) outlined in Appeal Level 1 above. Academic Services may offer advice to the student regarding how to compose and file the appeal. The written appeal must be in the form of a letter submitted by the student to the SC Chair describing the complaint in detail. The letter should answer these questions:

a.What is the term/year you are appealing? Note: Appeals should be submitted within one semester following the occurrence of the academic issue being appealed. See number 4 below.

b.What, exactly, is being appealed? Clearly provide the course number and title for a grade appeal or the specific program for retention, dismissal, or honor code appeal.

c.What are your specific objections to the decision under appeal? Refer to specifics on the course syllabus or to specific program or SEHD policies and procedures, handbooks, forms and signed documents.

d.What is the rationale for your objections? Provide a succinct narrative which clearly indicates why you believe the decision under appeal was not appropriate. Refer to the available materials (e.g. syllabi, policies and procedures documents) as appropriate in providing your rationale. Focus specifically on your individual appeal and refrain from referring to other students or faculty.

e.What changes do you request and what are your specific reasons to support your request? Indicate clearly what you believe would be a fair resolution to the issue under appeal.

- As noted above, the letter of appeal should be submitted within 30 days following the meeting with the faculty member or members outlined in the first level of the appeal process. The SC chair will review the appeal letter and request further information if necessary, and, if he/she deems the appeal to be within the purview of the committee, will forward the letter to SC committee members and the Associate Dean responsible for the program to which the student was admitted. If the letter is submitted between the end of the spring and the beginning of the fall semester, the letter will be reviewed at the first SC meeting in the fall semester. Academic appeals will be reviewed and responded to during the months of September through November and February until the first week in May.

- The faculty member or members named in the student's appeal will be notified of the student's appeal and provided with a copy of the student's appeal letter. The faculty member or members will respond to the appeal in a written statement to the SC within 14 days of their receipt of the notification of appeal. Exceptions to this 14-day limit may be allowed in special circumstances if the SC deems appropriate. Additionally, all parties involved in the appeal may receive copies of all submitted documentation pertaining to this case on a need-to-know basis as determined by the SC chair.

- The student's written appeal request (containing all required information) and faculty response will be reviewed by the SC at their next regularly scheduled meeting. The SC chair may ask for additional materials as needed.
- If students or faculty member/members fail to provide requested information in writing, the SC will proceed based on the available evidence.
- The SC will reach a decision based on the documentation. The SC's decision will be communicated in writing to the student, faculty member/members, and Dean within 14 days of the SC decision. If deemed appropriate by the SC, a formal appeal hearing may be scheduled for the next regular meeting time of the SC. A majority vote of the SC is necessary in order to schedule a formal appeal hearing

Appeal Level Three-Student Committee Formal Hearing

1. At the appeal hearing, the student and the faculty member/members both have the opportunity to make a 20-minute (maximum) oral presentation.
2. During the appeal hearing, SC members may request further information or ask questions.
3. The student and faculty member/members may bring one advocate to the appeal hearing. This individual may listen, take notes and advise the student but may not present to the committee. Advocates may be faculty, classmates, students or friends, but may not be staff members of SEHD. In addition, the SC may also request the presence of any administrators and/or other university officials as required for purposes of clarity, safety and procedural propriety.
4. The SC will review all information and render a timely decision. In most cases, and depending on their scheduled meetings, the SC will reach a decision within 40 days after the appeal hearing. Neither the student nor the faculty member or members involved in the appeal may be present, or consulted by, the SC during these deliberations.
5. The student and faculty member or members will be notified by letter within 45 days of the concluding decision of the SC. A copy of this decision will be forwarded to the Dean of the SEHD.

Appeal Level Four-Dean, School of Education & Human Development

The student or faculty member's next level of appeal is the Dean of the SEHD. Appeals materials provided to the SC will be shared with the Dean. The Dean may also request additional information as needed. This appeal to the Dean must occur within 30 days of the SC decision.

Student Committee composition for formal appeal hearings

- A SEHD Associate Dean serves as the non-voting committee convener during the formal appeal hearing.
- A majority of voting members or their appointed substitutes must be present for the formal appeal hearing.
- The student, the faculty member/members and the SC may each have one non-voting representative at the appeal hearing. This representative may listen and advise but not participate in the presentations to the committee. The representative may not be a staff member of SEHD. In addition, the SC may request the presence of any administrators and/or other university officials as required for purposes of clarity, safety and procedural propriety.

- Both the involved faculty member/members and the student may be present during the entire appeal hearing.
- If a SC member has extensive knowledge of the case or the student (e.g. is a member of the decision team which is being appealed or is the student's advisor) he or she will be asked to recuse him or herself from the appeal hearing.
- Appeal hearings may be video or audio taped only if all parties at the hearing agree to this procedure. Requests for video or audio taping must be made in writing, addressed to the SC committee chair and received at least one week before a hearing is scheduled. The chair will contact participants for a yes or no vote and alert all participants of the outcome of the vote prior to the meeting.

Retention of Academic Appeal Materials

SEHD responsibilities

All materials related to an academic appeal, including written statements from students and faculty, written decisions by the SC and requests for materials from the Dean of the SEHD and the CU Denver Graduate School will be housed in a secure confidential file in the Academic Services Office. This official file will be maintained under the name of the student originating the appeal. The official file will be retained for at least five years.

Student responsibilities

The student is responsible for keeping copies of all written materials submitted to both the faculty member and members and those submitted to the SC. It would be appropriate for the student to keep records of times, dates, content of conversations and suggested solutions discussed during the process of trying to resolve the problem.

Faculty responsibilities

The faculty member or members should keep copies of all written materials related to student appeal. This would include student letters, responses, and course or program documents related to the appeal. It is also recommended that faculty members keep records of times, dates, content of conversations and suggested solutions discussed during the process of trying to resolve the problem with a student.

APPENDIX G: Forms Used for Academic Services

CHANGE OF RECORD FORM

This form is used for changing IWs, IPs, and IFs to letter grades and retroactively dropping them from classes. The form is initiated by faculty and submitted to Academic Services Office for Dean's signature. Be sure to complete all appropriate sections. The student may not carry this form to Academic Services or the Records Office. (See CU Denver Downtown Denver campus Catalog or Schedule of Courses for criteria for using IW, IP, and IF.)

COURSE VALIDATION FORM

To receive credit toward a degree for a course taken more than ten years earlier, students must complete the Course Validation Form. The form can be obtained from Academic Services, LSC 701. After satisfactorily demonstrating knowledge of the course content (as per instructions on the form), the instructor (who must have taught this or a similar course) signs the form. The student submits the completed form to Academic Services to be credited toward graduation requirements.

COURSE WAIVER FORM

This form is used to waive a required course when the course (or a similar one) was or is taken in place of a required course in the student's program of study. The form can be downloaded from the School of Education & Human Development website or obtained in person, in Academic Services, LSC 701. It must be approved by an instructor and the student's advisor, and submitted to the Academic Services Advisor. A course waiver is generally used when the course can't be transferred in for such reasons as earning a P/F grade. Dean's signature is required and obtained by appropriate Academic Services staff.

'LICENSURE, ENDORSEMENT, AND TEMPORARY TEACHING ELIGIBILITY (TTE/SEE) FORMS

The form can be downloaded from the Colorado Department of Education website at https://www.cde.state.co.us/cdeprof/licensure_authorization_landing or obtained in person in Academic Services, LSC 701. Once forms are complete and official transcripts with all grades are posted submit all to Academic Services (LSC 701) for verification and submission to the Colorado Department of Education. Academic Services Advisors provide institutional recommendation for their respective programs.

SCHEDULE ADJUSTMENT FORM (ALSO KNOWN AS DROP/ADD FORM)

The Schedule Adjustment Form is used for adding/dropping classes before the census date (approximately two-and-one-half weeks after the first day of class), or dropping a class after the census date. Classes may NOT be added after the census date. The student initiates this form. Students must sign to acknowledge that they are academically and financially responsible for classes they are dropping/adding. Students requesting a withdrawal for the semester must sign Part II of the Schedule Adjustment Form (bottom half of the form). Students who try to register/add after census date on a Schedule Adjustment Form will be refused. If the instructor is amenable, the student may be granted permission to take the course during the current semester, but the student will be unable to register for the course and receive a grade until the end of the next semester in which the course is taught. A student who wants to graduate or get licensed will find that s/he is unable to do so until the grade is posted along with other grades the following term. (When classes are taught infrequently and/or by other instructors in the following semester, this can be a logistical nightmare so PLEASE try to avoid offering this option to students.)

The following process for faculty are recommended at the beginning of each semester. Take your course roster and Schedule Adjustment Forms to the first class of every course you teach and check to see which students are not on the roster. Those who are not on the roster must fill out the forms so they can get registered. If you don't mind doing so as an instructor, you can deliver the forms for final signatures to LSC 701 the next day. If this is not workable, the student needs to deliver the form before census day. Prior to your next class, print your roster again and check to see if those sitting in the class and those on the list coincide. You have only until the census date to make sure that everyone sitting in your class is registered (on the list).

Submit approved Schedule Adjustment Forms to Academic Services for processing. Blank forms are available from LSC 701, or online at:

http://www.ucdenver.edu/student-services/resources/Registrar-dev/Documents/FormStorage/Schedule_Adjustment_Form.pdf

SPECIAL PROCESSING FORM

This form is used for variable credit courses such as practicum's, internships, and dissertation. The form is initiated by the student, signed by the faculty, and submitted to Academic Services for Dean's signature. The signing instructor must be the instructor teaching the course. The form must be filled out completely and accurately or it will be returned to the faculty member, delaying processing. Independent study numbers to be used are: 5840, 6840, and 7840. The CU Denver Catalog explains which numbers to use for your program. Blank forms are available from LSC 701, or online

at:
http://www.ucdenver.edu/academics/colleges/SchoolOfEducation/CurrentStudents/Resources/all_docs/University_Special%20Processing%20Form.pdf

TRANSFER OF CREDIT FORM

This form is used when transferring credit for courses taken within the past ten years from another institution to CU Denver. Students can pick up this form in LSC 701. The completed form is submitted after successful completion of one semester as a regular degree student at CU Denver. The form is signed by the faculty advisor, and then forwarded to the Academic Services Advisor Dean Signature. At the time of submission, the student's file must contain an official transcript, sealed in an envelope from the issuing institution, showing completion of each course to be transferred or the transfer of credit must be submitted with the official transcript in its sealed envelope.

Reminder: The following courses cannot be transferred:

- * Courses taken on a Pass/Fail basis;
- * Courses from another master's degree;
- * Courses that were taken more than six years prior to advancement of candidacy. (Please consult the Graduate School Rules for more detail.) If the course is more than ten years old, the student needs to submit a Course Validation Form to his/her Faculty Advisor.

The term of election is three years with three committee members who are new each year. Neither the Dean, the Associate Dean in charge of the SEHD RTP process, the Dean's Review Committee, or the faculty member who serves on the CU Denver Vice Chancellor's Advisory Committee for Reappointment, Tenure, and Promotion (VCAC) are eligible for election. Each year the committee elects a chair from the members of the RTP Committee and may opt to elect a Co-chair. The chair directs and guides the meeting and advises faculty on policies and procedures. A Cochair supports the Chair and may anticipate taking responsibility for Chair responsibilities in the upcoming year. It is recommended that members of the RTP Committee not be required to also serve on the Merit Review Committee.

Ad Hoc Committees. Ad Hoc Committees are constituted as needed to complete specific tasks. They may serve for up to one year. The membership of the committee may be elected, appointed, or comprised of volunteers from the faculty. Faculty or administration may call for an ad hoc committee, and pending Leadership & Finance Team approval, organize, give a charge to the group, and determine how it will be constituted (number of members, type, election or selection).

APPENDIX I: SEHD Honor Code

School of Education & Human Development Student Honor Code

The School of Education & Human Development is committed to the Honor Code of the University of Colorado Denver. A university's reputation is built on a standing tradition of excellence and scholastic integrity. As members of the CU Denver academic community, faculty and students accept the responsibility to maintain the highest standards of intellectual honesty and ethical conduct in completing all forms of academic work and internships associated with the University.

SEHD Student Honor Code

Education at CU Denver is conducted under the honor system. All students entering an academic program should have developed the qualities of honesty and integrity, and each student should apply these principles to his or her academic and subsequent professional career. All students are expected to achieve a level of maturity which is reflected by appropriate conduct at all times. The type of conduct which violates the School of Education & Human Developments Student Honor Code may include but is not limited to the following:

Academic Dishonesty

1. Plagiarism
2. Cheating
3. Fabrication, falsification and deception
4. Multiple submissions
5. Misuse of academic materials 6. Complicity

Violation of any University of Colorado Denver or School of Education & Human Development policy

1. Intoxication
2. Unprofessionalism

Academic Dishonesty

Students are expected to know, understand, and comply with the ethical standards of the University. In addition, students have an obligation to inform the appropriate official of any acts of academic dishonesty by other students of the University. Academic dishonesty is defined as a student's use of unauthorized assistance with intent to deceive an instructor or other such person who may be assigned to evaluate the student's work in meeting course and degree requirements.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is the use of another person's distinctive ideas or words without acknowledgment. The incorporation of another person's work into one's own required appropriate identification and acknowledgment, regardless of the means of appropriation. The following are considered to be forms of plagiarism when the source is not noted:

1. Word-for-word copying of another person's ideas or words.
2. The mosaic (the interspersing of one's own words here and there while, in essence, copying another's work).

- 3.The paraphrase (the rewriting of another's work, yet still using their fundamental idea or theory).
- 4.Fabrication of references (inventing or counterfeiting sources).
- 5.Submission of another's work as one's own.
- 6.Neglecting quotation marks on material that is otherwise acknowledged.

Acknowledgment is not necessary when the material used is common knowledge. Cheating

Cheating involves the possession, communication, or use of information, materials, notes, study aids or other devices not authorized by the instructor in an academic exercise, or communication with another person during such an exercise. Some examples of cheating include:

- 1.Copying from another's paper or receiving unauthorized assistance from another during an academic exercise or in the submission of academic material;
- 2.Using any electronic, or digital, or technological or other device when its use has been disallowed;
- 3.Collaborating with another student or students during an academic exercise without the consent of the instructor.

Fabrication, Falsification and Deception

Fabrication involves inventing or counterfeiting information, e.g., creating results not obtained in a study or research. Falsification, on the other hand, involves deliberately altering or changing results to suit one's needs in an experiment or other academic exercise. Deception is providing false information or knowingly withholding information.

Multiple Submissions

This is the submission of academic work for which academic credit has already been earned, when such submission is made without instructor authorization. Misuse of Academic Materials

The misuse of academic materials includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- 1.Stealing or destroying library or reference materials or computer programs;
- 2.Stealing or destroying another student's notes or materials, or having such materials in one's possession without the owner's permission;
- 3.Receiving assistance in locating or using sources of information in an assignment when such assistance has been forbidden by the instructor;
- 4.Illegitimate possession, disposition, or use of examinations or answer keys to examinations.
- 5.Unauthorized alteration, forgery, or falsification;
- 6.Unauthorized sale or purchase of examinations, papers, or assignments.

Complicity in Academic Dishonesty

Complicity involves knowingly contributing to another's acts of academic dishonesty.

Intoxication

This is defined as being under the influence of drugs or alcohol in any University setting, classroom setting, practicum/internship, professional development school/site, computer lab or shared student space that compromises the student's ability to learn and participate in educational activities, interferes with the learning process of other students and/or customers and clients of the School of Education & Human Development. Students who have difficulties with alcohol and/or other substances may seek assistance from services available on campus such as the CU Denver Student/Community Counseling Center. Unprofessional Behavior

Any conduct including electronic communications, both on and off campus, that interfere with the student's ability to maintain professional standards as defined in program handbooks, professional codes of ethics, University policies or procedures or reflects poorly on the student, School of Education & Human Development or University is prohibited.

Disruptive or Disorderly Conduct

Disruptive or disorderly conduct in any University setting or partner setting, such as the disregard of rights of faculty, staff, administration and peers, threatening behaviors in any medium of communication and sexual harassment are examples of disruptive and disorderly conduct and a violation of the University Code of Student Conduct is prohibited. The Code of Student Conduct can be found by visiting the Office of Community Standards and Wellness website at www.ucdenver.edu/life/services/standards.

All proceedings concerned with academic dishonesty are confidential to the extent permitted by law.

A student accused of academic dishonesty has the right to:

- admit to the charges and accept the penalty imposed by the instructor. If the student admits to the charges, the faculty member will invoke an appropriate penalty, which could include the issuance of a failing grade in the course. If the faculty member believes further action is warranted, then the faculty member may request a hearing of the Academic Ethics Committee, which will determine if further action is necessary;
- dispute the charges or the penalty by following the Student Academic Appeal process.

Procedures for faculty encountering academic dishonesty

In order to facilitate the accusation process, it is suggested that faculty members include in their syllabi a statement concerning their policy on matters of academic dishonesty.

A.A faculty member who suspects that a student may be guilty of academic dishonesty should react quickly. S/he should gather as much evidence as possible as rapidly as possible: e.g. gathering names of and impressions from potential witnesses, listing potential references that may have been plagiarized, or retaining any hard copies of evidence, such as "cheat sheets" or tests that might have been copied and/or copied from. S/he should commit as many details of the incident to writing as quickly as possible as details regarding an incident can be quickly forgotten.

B.When a faculty member has evidence suggesting that a student is guilty of academic dishonesty, the student should be confronted with the evidence at a meeting, preferably held in the faculty member's office within five (5) working days of the discovery of the alleged incident.

C.After the meeting described above, the faculty member should determine the appropriate penalty for the act of dishonesty. This penalty, as determined by the faculty member, may be a failing or zero grade for the assignment in question or a failing grade in the course. The penalty should be consistent with any information published in the faculty member's syllabus. If the faculty member feels that issuance of a failing grade is an insufficient penalty, then the faculty member may request a formal meeting the Associate Dean over SEHD academic program.

D. After determining the appropriate penalty, the faculty member should present the student with a written letter describing the alleged violation. Copies of this letter should be given to the student's faculty advisor, the Associate Dean of academic programs and a copy should be placed in the student's file housed within the Student Services Center. E. This letter must include:

- a detailed description of the incident that resulted in the allegation of academic dishonesty;
- a statement of the penalty that will be imposed on the student;
- attachment: The SEHD Student Academic Appeal Process

Procedures for faculty that encounter violations of policies other than academic dishonesty

Violations of the student honor code that are unrelated to academic dishonesty should also be considered serious and reported to the School of Education & Human Development Associate Dean for Academics. The appropriate offices including campus police, CU Denver Office of Community Standards and Wellness and other appropriate offices may be contacted to report the violation. Consequences and outcomes will be determined by the appropriate parties given the severity of the offense.
