School's Mission and Vision

Mission

Leadership For Educational Equity

Prepare and inspire education and mental health leaders to have a profound impact in fostering student opportunity, achievement and success in urban and diverse communities.

Vision

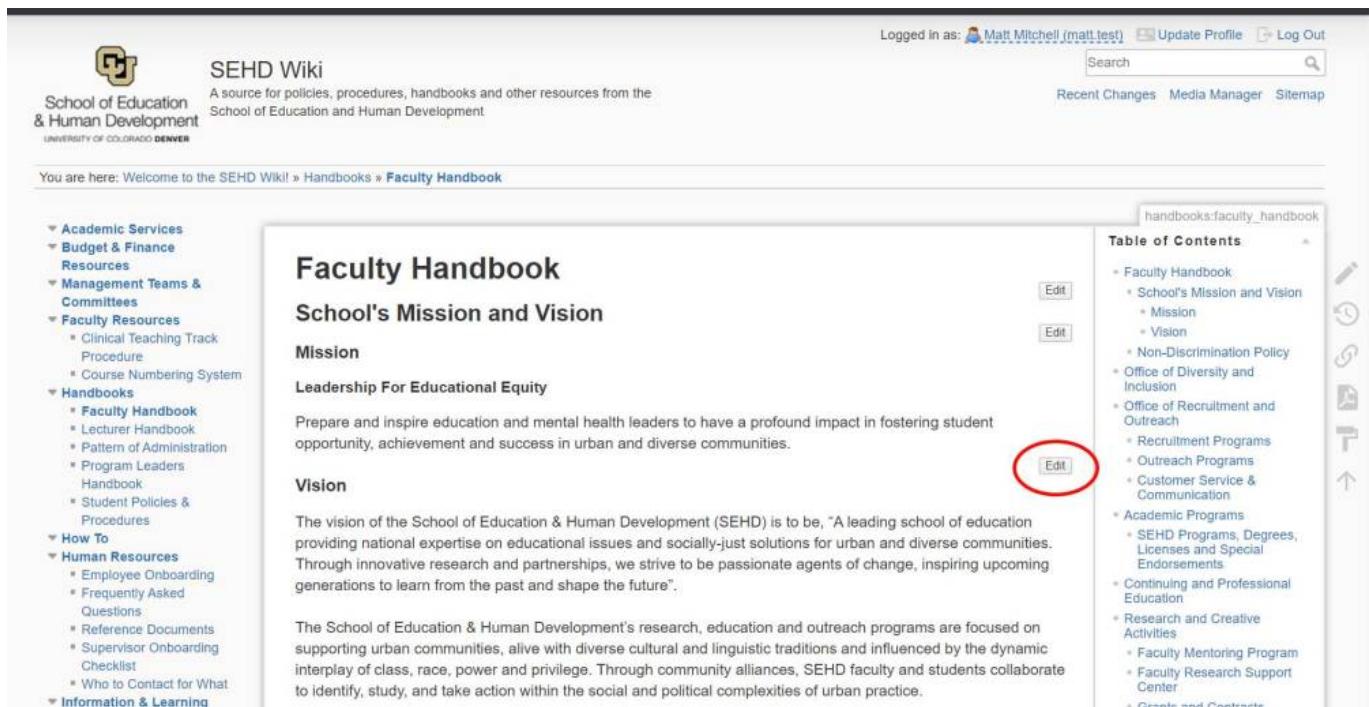

The vision of the School of Education & Human Development (SEHD) is to be, "A leading school of education providing national expertise on educational issues and socially-just solutions for urban and diverse communities. Through innovative research and partnerships, we strive to be passionate agents of change, inspiring upcoming generations to learn from the past and shape the future".

The School of Education & Human Development's research, education and outreach programs are focused on supporting urban communities, alive with diverse cultural and linguistic traditions and influenced by the dynamic interplay of class, race, power and privilege. Through community alliances, SEHD faculty and students collaborate to identify, study, and take action within the social and political complexities of urban practice.

3. Click the “Edit” button that is below and to the right of the section you would like to edit. In this case we want to edit the “Mission”.

The screenshot shows a page titled "Faculty Handbook" under "School's Mission and Vision". The "Mission" section is visible, and an "Edit" button is located to its right. A red circle highlights this "Edit" button. The page also includes a sidebar with a table of contents and a search bar.

4. Make your changes on this page using the editor and click save when you are finished. Every save creates a new version of the document, allowing you to roll back changes to previous revisions if mistakes are made.

The screenshot shows the "Mission" section in edit mode. The edit toolbar is visible at the top, and the "Save" button is highlighted with a red circle. The page content includes the "Leadership For Educational Equity" section and its description.
