Faculty Handbook

School's Mission and Vision

Mission

Leadership For Educational Equity

Prepare and inspire education and mental health leaders to have a profound impact in fostering student opportunity, achievement and success in urban and diverse communities.

Vision

The vision of the School of Education & Human Development (SEHD) is to be, "A leading school of education providing national expertise on educational issues and socially-just solutions for urban and diverse communities. Through innovative research and partnerships, we strive to be passionate agents of change, inspiring upcoming generations to learn from the past and shape the future".

The School of Education & Human Development's research, education and outreach programs are focused on supporting urban communities, alive with diverse cultural and linguistic traditions and influenced by the dynamic interplay of class, race, power and privilege. Through community alliances, SEHD faculty and students collaborate to identify, study, and take action within the social and political complexities of urban practice.

3. Click the “Edit” button that is below and to the right of the section you would like to edit. In this case we want to edit the “Mission”.

Hovering over the edit button for a second before clicking it can prevent it from opening the wrong section.

 Sometimes when you click the “edit” button it will load extra sections or the wrong section entirely, if this happens it is best to just hit cancel and go back to the previous page and then hit the edit button again.
