Information & Learning Technologies

The Information & Learning Technologies (ILT) team has two service areas and teams: the Tech Team and the Digital Learning Team.

The Tech Team focuses primarily on Information Technology (IT) infrastructure, facilities, services, and support. The Tech Team consults and assists with the acquisition, installation, or repair of ANY/ALL technology and equipment housed within the SEHD. The team is a liaison with the University Office of Information Technology (OIT), CU facilities, and respective vendors/partners needing to integrate with SEHD systems. We consult and assist with web development, automation/workflow, facility design/maintenance, employee computing/printing, student computing/printing and related support services.

The Digital Learning Team focuses primarily on digital teaching and learning; platforms, pedagogies, designs, and projects. The Digital Learning Team consults and assists with the development of digital courses, programs, and faculty; incorporating technology training, support, and development of digitally enhanced teaching. This team is a liaison with the CU Office of Digital Education (ODE), the Center for Excellence in Teaching & Learning (CETL), ThingStudio, and the Learning, Educational Technology, Teaching, and Scholarship Committee (LETTS). This team also works closely with the SEHD's Learning Design & Technology (LDT) program, and provides leadership and guidance for the LDT Student Agency.

The LDT Student Agency is a creative and technical student-team operating as an extension of the SEHD's Learning Design & Technology MA program. LDT students are invited to work in the agency as ad-hoc learning designers, educational technologists, and consultants. Students are for-hire inside and outside of the university as a student practicum.
